CANADA JOINS LEAGUE OF NATIONS

PRINCE RUPERT, B.C. FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 1927

ENGLISH FIRM TO BUILD THREE NEW SHIPS FOR CANADA

Canada Elected to Seat in the League of Nations at Geneva to Participate in World Affairs

GENEVA, September 16. — Canada is now a member of the League of Nations. She has the position for three years, having been chosen yesterday with two other countries for non-permanent seats. Forty-nine states voted, Cuba receiving 40 votes, Finland 33, Canada 26, Greece 23, Portugal 16, Uruguay 3, and Haiti 1.

The Canadian delegation gave a dinner last night which was attended by 200 delegates to the Assembly. In a statement Senator Dandurand said: "Canada highly appreciates the honor implied in the expression of confidence manifested in today's election to the Assembly. It is the first time a British Dominion has been called upon to participate with other world powers in the joint responsibility of an effort to settle world difficulties.

LONG FLIGHT

MacIntosh Leaves Captain Dublin for New York in Princess Xenia

DUBLAN, Sept. 16 .- Captain R. H. MacIntosh in the plane Princess Xenia hopped off at 1.34 this afternoon for New York. He expects to make the flight in 26 hours. He picked up a black cat just before the take off saying. "This certainly is an omen of good luck."

Two fast airplanes from the Free State escorted the intrepid flyer to the coast.

MacIntosh is known as the "pilot of the night" because he claims the record for the largest number of nocturnal flying. He has thirteen years experience and the reputation of being one of the best pilots in the world. He served in the war, resigning from the airforce in 1919.

Until two months ago, when he resigned to prepare for his transatlantic flight, MacIntosh was with the Imperial Airways and is credited with having crossed the channel more times than any other flyer. . He is 32 years old, unmarried. He is accompanied on this flight by Commandant James Fitzmaurice of the Free State air force. who also served in the war.
