pishop-elect of the Caledonian Diocese, Dr. H. Toronto will be consecrated at a cerein Christ Church Cathedral, Victoria, Jan. 25, over her new book, based on the sannounced today.

Dr. Watts was elected as bishsynod at which were represented members of the Church of England clergy and laity

from all parts of the province.

French Writer

Wins Nobel

Book Award

lic author.

World War.

cash prize.

and white.

Bloch and Purcell developed their method of measuring the magnetic fields in atomic nuclei independently of each other.

The technique enabled atomic scientists to increase a thousand-fold the precision of measurements of fundamental importance to the study of the

FANCY FOWL

First Presbyterian Church

structure of atomic nuclei.

STOCKHOLM .- Royal Swed

ish * Academy today awarded

1952 Nobel Prize for literature to French novelist Francois

Mauriac, leading Roman Catho-tion which pays the prizes.

will be enthroned in St. Anshop H. E. Sexton of Westminster will conduct within a week of consecration. h church service. expected that Dr. Watts op here Oct. 23 at an election

MGLICAN CATHEDRAL skirts of the city July 24.

RECTORY

Basil S. Prockter, B.A., B.D. FIRST BAPTIST et Ave. E. at Young St. wer Rev. Fred Antrobus.

TEST PRESBYTERIAN 4th Avenue East E A. Wright. D.D.

FIRST UNITED gm 8th Ave. West Ber. L. G. Sleber SILVATION ARMY Praser Street Sr Capt. George Oystryk

R PAUL'S LUTHERAN

edst School 2:30 p.m.

PETER'S ANGLICAN 15 Twining, B.A., LTH (Rector)

REGULAR BAPTIST ming Worship Service 12:15

ANGELICAL FREE 4th Ave. E. SUNDAY

Sanday School Adult Bible Class FM.- .

Song Time Message by Pastor miday Services will be

WELCOME Rom. 8:23

fusior C. W. SINCLAIR

Maio Station KTKN MEGAY, 9:300 A.M.

ST. PAUL'S THERAN CHURCH

th Are, at McBride St. M. H. O. OLSON, Pastor last Shall Live By Faith se and Worship with us. SUNDAY SERVICES MOVEMBER 9, 1952 in Service 11 a.m. mon: "Living For Jesus" or Service 7:30 p.m. mm: 'The Believer's Chalay School 12:15 p.m.

membrance Services a-Morning Worship mon: This Stone then's Story: Forget It Not them: Jerusalem am Evening Worship

mon: Give Me Tomorrow then: For All The Saints COME AND WORSHIP DAY SCHOOLS at First and Church: Beginners and tary at 11 a.m; Older 12:15; at Conrad United Sunday School 12:15. all at 11 a.m.

People and Young Adult oth meet after evening

Remembrance Day Service 7:30. Speaker: P. H. Linzey. "Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it Holy."

We extend a cordial invitation to visitors to worship with us.

231 Fourth Ave. East

Minister: Rev. E. A. Wright, D.D.

Organists: Mrs. E. J. Smith

NOVEMBER 9, 1952

Morning Worship II o'clock.

and John Currie.

Speaker-Major W. C. Poulton.

First Baptist

Church

Last Chance

to hear

Rev. E. Lawson

Albuquerque, New Mexico Saturday, Nov. 8 at 7:45 p.m.

Sunday, November S AT BOTH SERVICES SUNDAY SCHOOL

On the BOOK SHELF

"THE TUNDRA WORLD" by Theodora C. Stanwell-Fletcher (available at the Public) Library).

The many thousands of readers who delighted in Mrs. Stanwell-Fletcher's "Driftwood Valley" will be equally enthusiastic author's experiences in one of the last frontiers of the worlddrew's Cathedral, Prince Rupert, For here again, as Lewis Gannett wrote of "Driftwood Valley," is far more than a "tale of suick wilderness adventure; this is a deeply lived story of a wilderness home."

Here is a very real and beautiful account of the effect of a Dr. Watts succeeds the late tundra world not only on plants Bishop J. B. Gibson, killed in an and animals, but also on human automobile accident at the out- life and character.

Mrs. Stanwell-Fletcher tells Reeve reached the west coast last outpost of civilization before the vast and little-known expanse of the Barrenlands. home, Rosamund had come alone to join a fellow graduate student and three professors in study of the bird and plant life of a sub-arctic tundra.

The first night she fell in love with the arctic, listening to the chorus of Churchill's 200 sleddogs greeting the sunset.

Prize was among this year's "It was the most moving, awelist of honors bestowed under some, thrilling music I've ever the will of Alfred Nobel, Swedish heard in all my life. It was made inventor of dynamite, which of all the things one dreams of; established $9,000,000 founda- the heartless beauty of arctic ice, the terror of polar winds Award for medicine, announc- and whirling snows, the short ed Oct. 23, will go to U.S. Dr. and radiant brightness of arctic Selman A. Waksman of Rutgers summer, the undying loveliness University, co-discoverer of of Lapland nights."

streptomyocin. A committee of A girl with less courage would the Norwegian parliament an- have quailed at the hardships nounced earlier that no peace and dangers, and utter lack of prize would be given this year. | conventions in that untrammel-Two United States scientists led world. But Rosamund loved were awarded the 1952 prize in even the dangerous trip to Fox physics for their development of Island when the outboard motor a new refined method to meas- failed and ice started to close overnight trip without equip- SYLLABUS The winners are Dr. Felix ment to an isolated cabin where Bloch, 47, of Stanford Univer- she saw her first arctic wolf and sity, Calif., and a Harvard Uni- Barren Ground caribou.

Mills Purcell, 40, who helped de- ed those strong and fascinating velop radar during the Second people of the North, in particular Eric Grey, the trapper with Each of the prizes carries a a toughness and force of charcash award of 171,134 Swedish acter unlike any she had known crowns ($33,037). Bloch and before, whose future seemed to Purcell will share the physics be involved with her own.

THE SUN HORSE

by Catherine Anthony Clark (available at the Wm. Earl Sargent Memorial Library) Here again is the fascinating tively few changes in the 1953 mixture of adventure, fantasy and Indian folk-lore that delighted many readers of the author's last book, "The Golden,

Pine Cone." In this new story, two 11year-olds, Mark, an orphan living with relatives in the Kootenays in B.C., and Giselle, the French-Canadian girl he meets Wilkinson, 76-year-old Devonpoultry with red heads, white who went looking for the mag- ment control over both television bodies and tail feathers of blue nificent Sun Horse. Flame-lighter Woman and the ion would wish to see this system production Bat-will thrill every boy and reproduced in England," Dr. Cyril in London, Ont.

Reception For Artists

lounge of the Civic Centre is planned by Alaska Music Trail Auxiliary for the artists appearing at the Wednesday night con-

All those interested in meeting the artist may obtain their invitation by contacting the Civic Centre office. Members of the Soroptimist Club will be ushers and serve tea.

RICH AREA Sinking or Chinese Turkestan is said to be China's richest region for strategic minerals.

WHO-O-O-O CARES?-This young horned owl seems indifferent to captivity when in the company of Claudette Carriere of Cornwall, Ont., who caught the bird on her back porch, (CP PHOTO)

how, late one June, Rosamund Music Festival Promotes Quality of Hudson Bay and the frontier Without Rivalry, Competition settlement of Churchill—the Without Rivalry, Competition

"In musical festivals, the object is not to gain a From a sheltered New England prize, nor defeat a rival, but to pace one another on the road to excellence," says a report on the first annual conference of the Federation of Canadian Musical Festivals, held at Banff in 1950.

> "That expresses perfectly the attitude that is most desirable syllabus. The committee felt and most rewarding to those that the classes offered in pre- The Consul, to be presented in resources." taking part in a festival and it vious festivals gave good scope sums up the general idea of for the musical and dramatic the promotion of the yearly resources of the city and disfestival here, says the Prince trict. Rupert and District Music and Drama Festival Association.

for the past few months making standards as a rule have been plans for the sixth annual festi- good and reflect credit on the val in May 1953. The syllabus, a participants and their teachers, in previous years. Copies have henceforth strive to encourage no seconds or thirds. been distributed to schools, mu- greater artistic achievement. sic teachers and drama groups locally, and mailed to points all over northwestern B.C. and in southern Alaska, inviting en-

The attractively printed syllabus was made possible by the support given by many local Her adventures also concern- firms in advertisements. There is good coverage on the subjects program procedure, and there are blank entry forms for music and drama. There is also a mu sic order form.

The syllabus comprises 105 and two in dancing. Except for the addition of a Chopin section in music, there are compara- LRSM, of Victoria, B.C.

BBC Control

Of TV Urged

and radio.

of the BBC."

left the door open to future

operators when broadcasting fa-

The archbishop said " it would

The Daily News

Classified Ads Pay

be foolish to deny that television cilities are available.

possible dangers."

Only 11¢ a Day INSURES

You and Your Family

Be Protected-Keep Your Premium

Paid up to Date

LOWEST COST

PROTECTION

HOSPITAL BILLS!

AGAINST CRIPPLING

In former years the festiva association has encourage The association has been busy quantity of entries, and while comprehensive booklet, is avail- the association, acting on the able several weeks earlier than advice of the adjudicators, will

For instance, in group work collective rather than a scattering of ability will be encouraged.

In choirs and in choral speaking, entries will be accepted from a grade in which as many as 30 per cent may be selected from the next grade's best, to reinforce the quality of the entry. This will enable teachers of of entries, test pieces, awards, two consecutive grades to combine forces, and while it may have the effect of reducing the rumber of entries, it should improve the quality.

classes in music, 16 in drama adjucicate drama in the 1953 festival, but music classes will and one on Russian composers be adjudicated by Mary Wood,

-Foot Lights-

(By LILIAN MILLER)

at school, set out for Forgetfull YORK, England (AP) - The a background of basketball prac- the chair. A report on the suchave a secret method of breed- Valley—a mysterious place from Archbishop of York, the Church tise and badminton shuttles, re- cessful tea was read, and plans ing hens in color. He plans to which nobody ever returns. They of England's second-highest of- hearsals go on twice a week, were made for the Over 70 banproduce a special coronation hope to find Giselle's father ficial, urges continued govern- surrounded by an air of mystery. quet to be held on Dec. 18 in the

The make-up division is plan-Their exciting adventures - "Few of those who have ex- ning rehearsals, for Beth Hill. the strange people they meet, perienced in America commer- make-up director, says this is the birds and animals, the cialized broadcasting or televis- the only way to ensure perfect Garbett told the York diocesan General rehearsal nights are THE SUN HORSE is illustrat- conference. "The greatest hope Tuesdays and Fridays. The three ed by Clare Bice, a distinguished of avoiding the misuse of tele- acts of the play are being re-Canadian artist whose home is vision," he said, "is to allow it hearsed separately for the conto continue as at present a na- venience of small part actors. tional service under the control can be used for evil as well as Last season Jean, as president, for good. Like almost every other kept the tiny group together new invention, it brings with it with her determination and enthusiasm. This year she is hon-He said TV viewing "may occupy far too much time" and orary past president and has that there is "a danger that tele- been very active in the new play. vision may become a substitute Everyone will miss her - Bon for intelligent thought and read- Voyage, Jean.

Little Theatre deeply regrets Parliament recently voted the to say "Good Bye" to Jean Mc-BBC a new 10-year lease over Leod, who is returning to her radio and TV in Britain. But home in Vancouver.

Jean has been dietician at the commercial programs by private Prince Rupert General Hospital since September, 1951. Her outside activities have included work with the women's naval reserve, and Little Theatre.

sitting service.

The Women's Co-ordinating Little Theatre is moving ahead Council meeting was held Thursrapidly with the production of day afternoon in the Civic Cen-"Ask Me No Questions." Against tre. Mrs. Norton Youngs was in

PRINTING

IS THE GATEWAY TO NEW BUSINESS

Call 234

Hilliard C. Lyle

520" A Fine Hotel . . . to Sleep . . . Relax . . . Eatl

Radio Awards Split by Private Stations, CBC

The other special award winner, station CKCW, Moncton, received high praise for "its imaginative and inspiring encouragement of musical expression over a wide area of the Maritime Provinces through the annual Moncton Music

Festival . . . amply demonstrating what can be accomplished by a single Canadian station in the development of Canadian talent."

Starlight Moods, CBC, Toronto

Two Toronto stations cleaned with Sir Ernest Plays Favorites.

a Sunday night feature in which symphony conductor Sir Ernest

Honorable mention went to Chalet Concert, CKFH, Toronto, pro-

There were two firsts in Light

Entertainment-Network: Carte

Blanche (CBF, Montreal, Roger Rolland) and Stopwatch and listen (CBC, Vancouver, Ross

McLean). The perennial favorites, Wayne and Shuster (CBC,

Toronto, Jackie Rael Won an honorable mention, along with

Christmas Carnival (CBC, Van-

Just for Fun, handled by Hal and 3684) were granted honor-

P.O. Box 721

couver, Norman Campbellin

duced by Len Rowcliffe.

Honorable mentions in Drama- Classical section, CKEY won first,

In the Children's programs Davis at CKNW, New Westmin-

FOUNDATIONS

We will check your foundation and give estimates on-

KEEP YOUR HOME IN GOOD STANDING

Renewing of Wood Posts; Installing Concrete Posts,

GENERAL CONTRACTORS AND BUILDERS

Greer & Bridden Ltd.

215 1st Ave. West

Canada, United States, United Kingdom or Europe, you can save yourself

the trouble of arranging travel details.

Passports, travellers' cheques, rail and Atlantic possage can all be looked after by your C.N.R. Agent. He will

For information call or

VANCOUVER STORE

... presents the

Coming Soon

AT EATON'S PRINCE RUPERT ORDER OFFICE

Your chance to choose your furs from Fall, 1952 styles . . . at Vancouver store prices . . . with the help of an experienced representative from

EATON'S Vancouver Fur Department.

he glad to help and advise you.

Concrete Walls, or Complete Concrete Basements.

TORONTO - Private radio of French Canada in Music- Network, Light. Winners were stations took seven first awards Network, Light. and CBC seven for an even split Alan Savage, of Cockfield produced by Byng Whitteker of winnings in the fourth an- Brown & Co. Ltd., Toronto, pro- and Night Wine, a CBC Vannual Canadian Radio Awards ducer of Ford Theatre on the couver production by Norman announced in Toronto. In addi- CBC Trans-Canada Network, Campbell, now with CBC-TV in tion a private station, CKCW, also received strong commenda- Toronto, Honorable mention went Moncton, N.B., was given a spe- tion from the judges. In their to Songs From French Canada, cial award for outstanding com- opinion Savage's production of CBC, Toronto, Thom Benson, munity service. The .Ford Motor The Innocents, which won the and Musical Comedy Time, also Co. of Canada Ltd. also took a Drama-Network class, "came CBC, Toronto. special award, for its sponsor- nearest to being the completely ship of the network Ford Theatre satisfying drama on all counts." up in the Music-Non-network, in English and French.

Private stations were awarded Network went to The Witch, four honorable mentions and the from Stage 52, CBC, Montreal, produced by Rupert Caplan, and

The awards were made public Le Coureur de Marathan, direct- MacMillan turns disc jockey. on a special program from the ed by Guy Beaulne, CBC, Mont-Arts and Letters Club in Tor- real onto, broadcast over the CBC Trans-Canada Network.

The Maurice Rosenfeld Memorial Award, a gold key given each year to "the most promising newcomer to Canadian Radio," was won by Don Garrard, 24-year-old Vancouverborn bass baritone now studying at the Opera School of the Royal Conservatory of Music in Toronto.

music festival competitions on the coast before turning to the class the winner over both net- ste,r B.C., won the Light Entertheatre, radio and the concert work and private station entries tainment-Non-network. Fete au stage for a career. He has starred was The Magic Blue Box, CKFH, Village (CBV, Quebec, Paul Lein a number of shows on CJOR, Toronto, produced by Joy Knowl- gendre) and Kingston Peniten-Vancouver, and on the networks ton. The judges found it "exciting tiary on the Air (CKWS, Kingand sung in several operas. He and interesting . . . with ex- ston, Ont., Bill Luxton and Bert will appear in a major role in tremely good use of local station Cullen and Prisoners No. 7638 February at the Opera Festival Two firsts were given in Music- able mention.

Programs, entered from all parts of Canada, were judged in separate categories: Children's, Music, Drama, Public Affairs and Light Entertainment. Special awards were also given on recommendations of judges in the various classes.

Only two types of awards are given in each class: first and honorable mention. There are Toronto was the top production centre, with programs, both local and network, from that city taking six firsts and five honorable mentions. Montreal followed with four firsts and five honorable mentions. and Vancouver and New Westminster took three firsts and two honorable mentions. Winnipeg, once a key radio centre, failed to get a single mention.

French language programs took four firsts and four honorable mentions.

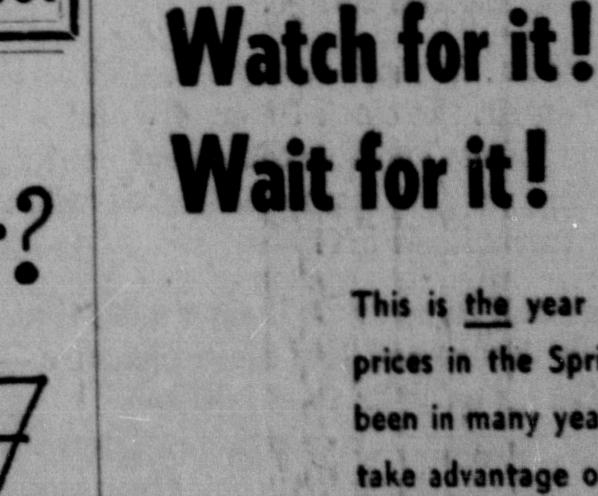

Thom Benson, CBC Special Events commentator and former Winnipeg announcer, took not-It is not yet known who will able honors with an extraordinary commendation for his Power of the Atom which won the Public Affairs-Network class, and an honorable mention for Songs

United Church Hall,

We'll glady help you plan your printing and assist you in every way.

This is the year to buy furs because raw skin prices in the Spring were lower than they have been in many years . . . our buyers were alert to take advantage of the situation . . . resulting in outstandingly low prices to you!

> Eaton's Budget Plan Terms are available if desired and each Fur is backed by the famous EATON guarantee: Goods Satisfactory or Money Refunded.

The T. EATON CO.

British Columbia Ltd.