COURT ACTION

MAGISTRATE DECLARES AGAINST FEDERAL LICENSE AND BEING BEYOND JURISDICTION

VANCOUVER, May 12. - Magistrate Alexander dismissed the action against the Sommerville Cannery Company brought by the federal department of fisheries on a charge of operating cannery without a license.

The cannery contended that the Philadelphi federal government exceeded its jurisdiction in compelling companies to take out a federal license.

The decision of the magistrate, if not upset in a higher court, will affect al the canneries in the province and particularly the use of the floating cannery Laurel Whalen, which the fisheries department have tried to tie down operation at one place.

RUMORS ALWAYS CURRENT THAT LIQUOR HAS BEEN TAKEN IN CASES OF SEIZURE

SAN FRANCISCO, May 12 .- Collector of customs William Hamilton declared that there were no grounds for suspecting a shortage of the Federalship cargo. "These rumers are current in all such cases," he said. "They were current about the Coal Harbor and the Quadra was aboard each vessel than was called for by the manifests, which probably were purposely incorrect. In the case of the Federalship there were guards representing the customs service and coastguard, nine or ten men watching one another as well as the cargo and there was no opportunity to remove any of it."

Milo Eggers Taken Out of Cell Under Protest Aster Guns Were Levelled and Sent Off to B.C.

TACOMA, May 12.—Under heavy guard Milo Eggers left here on the United States coastguard cutter Arcata for Victoria last night to face trial on a charge of shooting Einar Larum during the hi-jacking of the gasboat Hadsel in March, 1924.

When Forbes Cruikshanks and other British Columbia officers and a Tacoma shotgun squad went into the jail yesterday, the visit apparently surprised Eggers, who protested he "did not have to be taken away" and refused to come out of the cell. He picked up a heavy pot and exclaimed: "Come in and I'll knock your head off." The officers levelled their guns and the prisoner shambled out and was shackled by an officer.

VICTORIA, May 12.—Milo Eggers, who* for many months successfully resisted a charge of murder, arrived here this norning and was landed in jail to vait trial.
