CANADIAN CLUB GIVES BOOKS

LIBRARY RECIPIENT OF DONATION FROM LADIES AND TEN DOLLARS FROM MEMBER

Two donations were specifically mentioned at the regular monthly meeting of the Prince Rupert Public Library last night, G. V. Wilkinson presiding. These were $25 to purchase Canadian books from the Women's Canadian Club and $10 from Hon. T. D. Pattullo, member for the district.

The books chosen by the Canadian Club to be purchased by the donation are seven volumes of Parkman's history, completing the set now in possession of the library, "Builders of the Canadian Commonwealth" by Locke, "On the Old Athabaska Trail" by Purpee; "The First Great Canadian," "Haliburton" by Logan; "Roberts" by Cappon; "Appraisals of Canadian Literature," by Stevenson and "Canadian Folk Lore" by Macmillan.

Some discussion arose as to the purchase of the new book, Elmer Gantry, by Sinclair Lewis, author of Main Street. It was finally left to the librarian to decide but the concensus of opinion was against admitting it.

The librarian reported that 4,543 books had been loaned during the month of which 3,162 were fiction, 443 non-fiction and 938 juvenile. This made an average of 197.5 for the 23 days the library was open.

During the month 35 new borrowers had taken out cards of whom 11 were juvenile. Eighteen cards were cancelled leaving today 2,486 borrowers registered.

Books received during the month were by gift 22, by purchase 50, making a total of 72. Fourteen volumes were discarded leaving now on the shelves or in circulation 5,825 volumes.

Neglected Eyes

NEGLECT is doubtless the cause of most of the ills that afflict humanity. This is so self evident that it seems hardly necessary to tell you. If your eyes are giving trouble, have them attended to—and at once.

OF ALL absurdities in the kingdom of foolishness, surely the loss of eyesight through neglect is the most inexcusable.

DON'T lose health and efficiency through neglect. Come and see!

TEACHERS' BODY HOLDS MEETING

Principal Business at Gathering Last Night Was Presentation of Convention Reports

The regular monthly meeting of the Prince Rupert Teachers' Association, a branch of the British Columbia Teachers' Federation, was held last night, Miss Blanche Macdonald, president, occupying the chair.

Principal business was the presentation of reports by members who had attended the Federation convention at Victoria during Easter week. Miss Macdonald reported on the business sessions and the changes in School Law; Miss E. A. Mercer on the lecture by Dr. Cubberley of Stanford University on the trend of modern education and its demands; Miss Josephine Charlebois on the address of Dr. Roberts of the University of Washington on unsolved problems of education, and Miss MacKay on sectional meetings and the public reception given in the government buildings by the Department of Educaton.

There was a good attendance of teachers at the meeting.

QUIETLY MARRIED IN CITY YESTERDAY

Mrs. Ruby Carr Becomes Bride of Leonard McPhee at Quiet Ceremony

The marriage took place quietly yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lulu Russell, 909 First Avenue, Rev. J. R. Frizzell officiating, of Mrs. Ruby Carr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Rice, Fredericton, New Brunswick, and Leonard McPhee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Laughlan McPhee, Prince Edward Island. Witnesses of the ceremony were O. L. Nilson and Mrs. Russell.

Two pretty little flower girls were Miss Viola Carr, daughter of the bride and Miss Margaret Jackson. The bride, a resident of this city, was elegantly gowned in a rosewood costume with white fox furs and the house was very prettily decorated in pink and green, the ceremony being performed beneath a pink and green bell.

Mr. and Mrs. McPhee plan to remain in the city a few days after which they will leave to reside in Seattle where Mr. Carr is engaged in the profession of electrical engineering.

BRIDGE AND WHIST BY ROYAL PURPLE

The ladies of the Royal Purple held a bridge and whist party last evening at the home of Mrs. H. F. Glassy, Fifth Avenue, which proved a very enjoyable event. The affair was arranged by Mrs. Glassy and Mrs. Angel Astoria.

Winners at bridge were for the men, J. H. Bradbury, and ladies, Mrs. J. H. Bradbury.

Winners at whist were for the men, W. M. Brown on a cut with O. A. Johnson, and ladies, Mrs. McRobbie.

Mrs. McRobbie was the winner of the bath towels with entrance ticket 23.
