CONSOLIDATION OF 3,500 ACRES IN SALMON RIVER MINING DISTRICT

BIG CAPITALIZATION

Bush Consolidated Gold Mines to Take in Bush Mines, Gold Cliff and propertes heretofore recorded, has fnalbeen consummated in the organization of Bush Consolidated Mines. Its holdings consist of 54 claims and having both ends of the main mineralized zone of Premier, B.C. and National Another feature is that the company will be International character, having properties in British Columbia and Alaska which they will develop simultaneously. The deal was closed in Toronto this week.

O. B. Bush, the original discoverer of the area and who staked Premier, B.C. and National Silver and which are large successes, is backing the new consolidation. He put up his own cash to weld together the various holdings whole interest has been bound up in and will assume the presidency of the operation, work on which will start immediately.

SENSATIONAL CAMP

Among the various mining districts of British Columbia, none during the ast few years has jumped so prominently into the limelight and appealed so much to public interest as the Portland Canal District. After many vicissitudes and disappointments, arising to a great extent from lack of geological knowledge, capital and suitable working facilities, it suddenly, by the to outrival the Premier as producer of discovery of the wonderful "Premier" aroused the enthusiasm of mining men not only in Canada but throughout the mining world. The discovery the Premier was but the forerunner for intensive prospecting, resulting in rapid-in fact almost abnormal-development in every section of the rich Portland Canal Field.

In the last six years the Premier min has produced over $30,000,000 and paid its shareholders around $10,500,000 in

PIONEER IS PRESIDENT

In obtaining the services and influence of O. B. Bush as president and nanaging director, the Consolidation is fortunate. Since the year 1910 his the Portland Canal District, the possibilities of which, as a great mineral producer, inspired his imagination and led to efforts which have already laid the foundation of more than one great

Mr. Bush owned the first claims, which now form some of the main holdings of the Premier Mine. The purchase of other claims followed, constituting the ownership of what are now known as the B.C. Silver and National Silver, each of which bids fair wealth. The success which attended the opening up of these properties led Mr. Bush to acquire a large number of claims in the same vicinity, which now form the foundation of Bush Consolidated Gold Mines Limited. DIRECTORS NAMED

At present Mr. Bush is president of National Silver Mines, Bush Petroleum Corporation and Bush Mines Limited. Associated with him in the direction and control of the operations of the Consolidation, will be the following: Directors: George Kendall, Henry L. Meyer, Gen. A. E. Ross, M.P., Dr. J. E. Hawking, Geo. R. Bancroft and Edmund Herne secretary-treasurer. Frank E. Woodside is an alderman

Vancouver and president of the British Columbia Chamber of Mines. The services of Geo. R. Bancroft, formerly a superintendent of the Mandy Mine and superintendent of Sebakwe District Mines, and B. W. W. McDougall, well-known mining engineer, have
