INTERESTED BODIES WILL RAISE $1,000 FOR WORK THAT CITY WILL PERFORM NOW AT ACROPOLIS HILL

Accepting an undertaking from delegation representing the Fair Board and Baseball and Football Associations that a campaign would be instituted for the purpose of raising money to reimburse the city, the city council decided last night, on motion of Ald. Jos. It contains all the watch Greer and Ald. Tinker, to effect $1,000 worth of further improvement work consisting of surfacing on the Acropolis So we come to you with no- Hill grounds to fit it more adequately

The delegation which came to the council immediately after it had held a meeting in the police court, to devise a scheme for submission, consisted of George B. Casey, H. R. Love, J. S. Wilson, Ben Self, R. M. Winslow, J. W. Scott, George R. Tite and Douglas Frizzell. Many more had been present at the preparatory meeting over which Mr. Casey presided.

Mr. Casey, the first spokesman for the delegation, explained the meeting that had just been held. The various interested bodies were appreciative of the generous measure of work that had albeen done on the grounds but it a proposition to submit with a to having the improvements wholly completed in time for use this The Fair Board was considering the staging of a stampede this fall and for that purpose, all the ground available would be needed. The athletic podles were also desirous of more space had been agreed that, if the city would complete the surfacing, a campaign would be undertaken so as to raise at least $1,000 which it thought would cover the city in completing the work. It was being asked that the city consider and agree with the proposition.

The Little Things

¶AWAY back in the year 1757, in his maxims prefixed to Poor Richard's Almanac, Benjamin Franklin said: "For want of a nail, the shoe was lost; for want of a shoe, the horse was lost; and for want of a horse, the rider was lost." So you see the importance of a little think like a horse-shoe nail!

IF you are disposed to neglect the smaller advertisements in this paper, you are making a mistake. You are missing money-saving opportunities. You are missing important information about something that some day you are going to buy. You are throwing away your road-map and following your nose.

THE big stores of today were little stores years ago. They used advertising space judiciously and became large. At first, their announcements were smaller than they are today. But those small advertisements told about real values, real savings for their customers.

IN other words, the size of an dvertisement is no indication of its importance to you. The message is the thing. Some of the most important merchandise news is often printed in tiny type. Even in the largest advertisements you will find small type. Read the small type as well as the big black type. Read the little type as well as the big black type.
