NEGLECT is doubtless the cause of most of the ills that afflict humanity. This is so self evident that it seems hardly necessary to tell you. If your eyes are giving trouble, have them attended to-and at once.

OF ALL absurdities in the kingdom of foolishness, surely the loss of eyesight through neglect is the most inexcusable.

DON'T lose health and efficiency through neglect. Come and see!

Ketchikan Won First Game of Series and Prince Rupert Second

Ketchikan and Prince Rupert shared onors in the Diamond Jubilee baseball

Thusday evening, the visitors won to 4 in a game that was featured by a couple of fatal fielding breakdowns on the part of the locals. Good tight baseball was played for the first three frames and, in the fourth, Ketchikan took the lead with four runs though there were only two hits. Rupert was from then on playing behind although the hopes of the fans rose high in the fifth when the locals made seven hits with, however, only three runs. In the seventh, Ketchikan got two more runs across but Rupert was not able to overcome the lead, their only further score being one run in the ninth Prince Rupert excelled in batting and pitching honors were fairly even but it was in field work where the locals fell down. Play by play, the first game was as

First inning, Ketchikan-Mills hit to Moran, out at first, Moran to Downie; Hagel was walked by Lambie. Harris sacrificed, Moran to Downie. Hagel advanced to second on Harris' sacrifice. Garn flied out to Wendell. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Rupert - Hurley made three passes and retired to the bench. Moran flied A CANADIAN-MADE PRODUCT out to Harris at second. Wendell followed Hurley's example and also struck out. No runs, no hits, no errors. Second inning, Ketchikan-Wiggins hit to Balfour in right field, who was playing too deep to make an easy out. Higganson sacrificed advancing Wiggins to second. Hoban struck. Kubley up, Wiggins advances to third on a wild ley, out Hurley to Downie. No runs, one hit, one error.

Rupert-Downie hit to Garn at short out Garn to Kubley. Balfour hit scorcher to Garn who handled it with ease, and threw him out, Garn to Kubley. Haveland hit to second making the third out, Harris to Kubley. No runs, no hits no errors.

Third, Ketchikan-Duffey hit to slow out, Lambie to Downie. Mills flied made the third out unassisted.

No runs, no hits, no errors. Rupert-Farquhar struck out. Minahan out at first, Garn to Kubley. Lambie flied out to Mills in left field. No runs, no hits no errors.

FATAL FOURTH

Fourth inning, Ketchikan. Harris up, walked by pitcher. Lambie seemed lose control and also walked Garn the next man up. Wiggins hit a nice iner to deep right field for two bases men Higganson and Hoban, filling the bases. Kubley makes a nice hit to right field scoring Wiggins and Higganson. Loblic finds himself and strikes out Duffey and Mills. Hagel, the ninth man up in this inning, hits to Loblic who threw to Downie making the third out. 4 runs, 2 hits, no errors. Rupert-Hurley flied out to Wiggins in centre field. Moran hit to short. Wendell up, Moran stole second, Wendell flied out to Wiggins. Downie flied out to Garn at short. Three down. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Fifth inning, Ketchikan.-Harris hit to Hurley who fielded well, throwing nice to Downie making the first out. Garn hit to first, Downie making the second out massisted. Wiggins struck out. No runs, no hits, no errors. Rupert.—Balfour made a nice hit to centre field. Haveland hit to Harris who threw to Garn forcing Balfour at second. Farguhar hit to centre field scoring Haviland. Minahan followed with a nice two base hit to left field. Loblic up, Farguhar out trying to steal home, Hagel to Hoban. Loblic followed with another two base hit to right field. Hurley placed a little hit between second and short, scoring Loblic. Moran hit to Harris, forcing Hurley at second. 3 runs, 7 hits, no errors. Sixth inning, Ketchikan.—Higganson out, Hurley to Downie. Hoban hit to centre field. Kubley hit to short advancing Hoban to second. Duffey up, Hoban out trying to steal third, Minahan to Hurley. Duffey out, Minehan to Downie. No runs, no errors, two hits.

SECOND GAME In the second game yesterday afternoon, which finally got going after a half an hour after the scheduled time for starting, Ketchikan was entirely out of form. While the locals were playing airtight ball, the visitors could neither hit or field. Three Ketchikan pitchers were used and the only time the visitors got to bases was in the fifth or a walk. The game was called on account of rain at the end of the fifth inning with the score 16 to nil in Rupert - Wendell hit a screaming favor of Prince Rupert. The home team
