DAILY EDITION

CANDIDATES FOR PRESIDENCY OF U.S.

Although the United States presidential election is fifteen months away, people in that country and this are already busy wagging their tongues in connection with the election prospects. While it is no business of Canada who is elected in that country, it the life is not a soft one, that men must does affect the Dominion particularly on account of the close associations between the two countries.

On this occasion the campaign is likely to be one of personalities rather than of issues. There are no issues. The country is own, and the present plan will remove the opposition of the beer parlors and prosperous. The league of nations and the tariff are pretty well the bogy of the long years of waiting Government vendor. They say if exhausted as topics of discussion and the country is tired of hearing while saving wages which has daunted about them. New catchwords will have to be invented and new and finally deterred many young emipersonalities infused into the party fight.

Happily in the United States there is springing up a body of electors who are independent of party politics and who control the elections. In that way they resemble the Independent group in Canada.

There is talk of an election, but why have one? Nobody thinks the Legislature is any use no matter what party is in power.

POSSIBILITIES FOR NOMINATION

With Coolidge out of the way the name that comes most easily to the front is that of Henry Ford. He is the best known man in United States. He has made mistakes and these mistakes will militate against him politically.

But if Ford is debarred because of his partizanship, much report of the 1926 Imperial Conference. day. more so is Senator Borah who is also mentioned as a likely man to succeed Coolidge. It would be an international calamity if Borah port was political, the Marketing should be nominated. His hostility to Britain would tend to injure Board's report is economic. It is really the present cordial relations between the two countries and indirectly would injure Canada. Hoover, McAdoo, Underwood, Pershing, all to combine the autonomy of the parts are mentioned, but the possibility is a practically unknown man on whom all sections of the party can unite, will be chosen. From now on until the nomination conventions are held, we shall be hearing of likely candidates for the high office.

A village is a place where a rumor flies around like lightning and everybody hears it and accepts it for fact.

CO-OPERATE WITH COMMISSION

Just now J. P. Babcock, deputy commissioner of fisheries for B.C. and chairman of the international fisheries commission, is in the district looking into various matters connected with the fisheries on the coast. He is meeting a good many fishermen, fish dealers Imperial Government. British taxand others interested in the fishing business. Some method can be planned. SWIM IN SALT LAKES

> One point that would certainly appeal to many visitors is a swim in the Salt Lakes. The northern waters are old. The tourists have not had a wim for days and in the recent hot weather the sea invited them but they were not encouraged to enjoy themselcs. Why not boost the Salt Lakes for he tourists? This is a feature that would attract and please and it is only by attracting and pleasing the visitors that Prince Rupert will become a tourst centre, not only a point passed through on their way to the real centre of enjoyment.
