Neglected Eyes

NEGLECT is doubtless the cause of most of the ills that afflict humanity. This is so self evident that it seems hardly necessary to tell you. If your eyes are giving trouble, have them attended to—and at once.

OF ALL absurdities in the kingdom of foolishness, surely the loss of eyesight through neglect is the most inexcusable.

DON'T lose health and efficiency through neglect. Come and see!

GROTTO WINNER BASEBALL GAME

Score of 10 to 3 in Intermediate Match Last Night

The Intermediate baseball game between Native Sons and Grotto resulted in a win for the Grotto over the Sons by a score of 10-3.

The feature of the game was good pitching by both pitchers but while Chenoski got good support Slocombe's team-mates let him down in the pinches. Chenoski struck out 13, Slocombe struck out six and gave one walk. In the last inning Duncan relieved him and struck out three while he gave one walk.

Runs were scored when Jack McNulty made two errors in the first inning and the Sons made two runs. Grotto opened their score when they made one in the second. They added four in the third. Sons came through with one in the fourth but Grotto went ahead further with three in the fourth.

Sons went scoreless for the remainder of the game while Grotto brought their total up to ten by adding two in the sixth.

Astoria hit a two-bagger in the fourth for the Sons, and Gurvich hit a two-bagger in the fourth for Grotto. Doug. Stalker in four times at bat, hit safely three times and got to first the fourth on an error. Altogether Sons had three hits while Grotto chalked up eight hits.

Teams:

Sons—McNulty, Shenton, J. Weir, Astoria, Nelson, Slocombe, Wakefield, Thomson, Duncan and E. Dingwall.

Grotto—S. Gurvich, McNulty, Chenoski, D. Stalker, E. Smith, G. Howe, R. Stalker, Comadina, F. Dingwall.

SPORT CHAT

Ten years ago a football match took place between the city and "Our Visitors" the team being from the visiting cruiser. The visitors won 7-2 and the city team was W. R. Martin, A. L. Murray, James Curris, R. Arthur, W. Murray, James Hunter, Sid Harvey, J. Craggs, W. E. Williscroft (captain) R. Dowther, J. McIlravey.

It is interesting to see that some of those who took part in that game are still with us, and anxious to get out and show the world that there is life in them yet. More power to them all.

"The higher the kick the bigger the cheer" is often exemplified on the Acropolis Hill during the football games. Now if the spectators were familiar with the finer points of the game they would not commend the kicker. A hefty kick appeals because it shows strength. But as long as football is played on the ground, not in the air or with airplanes so long must players aim to keep the ball on the ground.

A good full back aims first of all at clearing his lines but in his mind at the same time is the idea of hitting the ball sufficiently hard to place it to one of his own men. He will therefore raise the ball just high enough to pass intervening players and strong enough to reach his team-mates. He must also be a good tackler and fearless. Once he makes up his mind that he is going to get a certain ball he should go after it. But he must be able to recover and when beaten be able to turn quickly and tackle the opposing forward again. A hefty kick missed means that some seconds will be lost before he can recover and these seconds may be disastrous for his team.

The back must also have a good understanding with his goal-keeper and his half back. The understanding with the goal keeper will mean that if the goal keeper is better placed to get the ball then the back will not try to get it but will cover the opposing forward so that the latter will not be able to interfere with the goalie. A nice understanding with the goalie enables the back when hard pressed to kick the ball back to the goalie who will be able to clear safely. The understanding between the back and his half includes a plan as to which of the opposing forwards each is to check. As a forward attack usually starts from an inside forward the plan of defence is that the wing half checks him and the back covers the outside forward.

The Corithians, the famous English amateur team used to play so that the back marked the inside forward. At that time the Corinthians had a very fast defence and their plan was feasible but it was something of an experiment. The back will therefore clear his lines by kicking away from his goal, never across it. He will try to place the ball to his own forwards by means of low kicking. He will have an understanding with his goal-keeper and with his half-back and will know the off-side rule. He must be able to kick with either foot and must practise heading the ball. He will also cultivate the art of stopping the ball with his body and yet be able to keep the ball under control. In this way he will often clear short shots in on the goal. This calls for lots of pluck but a timid player will never be good at football. He may survive at tennis or golf but football demands a physical and moral courage and because of this is one of the best games to train boys to take knocks without whining.

For tonight's senior ball game Haviland will pitch for Gyros and Doug. Stork will hold down first, while Stan Moran will go shortstop. The betting is reported 5-4 on the Gyros but there is no record of what amount has been placed at these odds.

The passenger train from the east bearing mail is reported on time at 3.30 this afternoon.

DAVID THOMSON IS BACK FROM SOUTH

Pioneer Local Business Man Enjoyed Motor Trip to California During Absence From City

David Thomson returned to the city on the Prince George this morning after an absence in the south of two months, the most of which time was spent at Vancouver. Mrs. Thomson and daughter, Winnie, will return home later in the week.

In company with Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Shockley, formerly of Prince Rupert, Mr. and Mrs. Thomson, while in the south, took a motor trip to California, going as far as San Diego and visiting in Los Angeles with their daughter, Eva, who is married and resident in that city.

While he enjoyed his sojourn in the south, Mr. Thomson states he is glad to be back to resume his business interests here.
