SMITHERS CONVENTION PASSES NUMBER OF RESOLUTIONS

Fifty Million Dollars Railway Bonds Sold in Canada and the States

NEW YORK, June 11.—More than fifty million dollars of the sixty-five million dollar loan awarded to a selling syndicate this week was sold yesterday, it was learned. Sixty per cent of the sale of thirty year four and a half per cent bonds was accounted for in the United States and forty per cent in Canada. Additional large subscriptions were received from institutions and estates.

An interesting feature in connection with the offering, it is stated, is the large number of subscriptions for sums under ten thousand dollars from individual investors. Subscriptions were continuing to be received at the syndicate headquarters this morning and it is expected the entire issue will be over-subscribed today.

SIX HOUSES WERE BURNED NEAR ANYOX

RESTRICTED DISTRICT WIPED OUT
NEAR SMELTER TOWN CAUSING
$10,000 LOSS

Fire breaking out about three o'clock yesterday afternoon and still raging when latest reports were received last night caused the destruction of six houses—comprising the so-called restricted district at Anyox. According to advices sent to provincial police headquarters here by Constable William Smith of Anyox, a bush fire was the cause of the conflagration. Soon the group of houses, which lie across the slippage about a mile west of the smelter town proper, were in seething flames and beyond control.

While the women resident therein are understood to have saved some of their belongings, an unofficial estimate places the loss of residences and contents at $10,000. Some of the women took refuge in Chinese premises not far away while others were given shelter in town.

LINDBERGH IS GIVEN OVATION

PRESENTED WITH FLYING CROSS
BY PRESIDENT COOLIDGE AND WELCOMED BY VAST THROWING

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Over a triumphant route which was lined with throngs of people and leading to the highest honors the nation can bestow on heroes, Charles Lindbergh came back to America. Smiling and waving acknowledgement, the young aviator who made the New York to Paris flight stepped ashore shortly after noon from the cruiser Memphis and was whisked away at the head of a triumphant parade along Pennsylvania Ave at the end under the shadow of the Washington monument waited President Coolidge to bestow on him the Government's new distinguished flying cross. Vast throngs witnessed the ceremonies and gave Lindbergh a great welcome.

PITTSBURG WON; YANKEES LOST

TABLES TURNED AMONG LEADERS
IN BIG LEAGUE BASEBALL GAMES
YESTERDAY

NEW YORK, June 11.—Pittsburg Pirates, National League leaders, got their revenge yesterday afternoon from the New York Giants who had beaten them two games in a row. It was in the form of a 13-4 win for the Pirates. Chicago retained second place in the league by defeating Brooklyn, while St. Louis was being beaten 11-8 at the hands of Boston. Cincinnati Reds got into winning stride again and took Philadelphia 9-3.

After being defeated three times, Chicago White Sox came up from behind in the American League and took the fourth game of a series with New York Yankees 4-2. This was the series in which the Sox had hoped to take the American leadership. Their effort in the direct tussle, however, proved abortive. Philadelphia Athletics strengthened their position in third place by defeating St. Louis 4-3. Washington Senators defeated Cleveland 6-5 and Detroit and Boston, cellar teams, were idle.

The games resulted as follows:

NATIONAL LEAGUE
New York 4, Pittsburg 13.

Warner First President Associated Boards of Trade of Central B.C.

NUMBER OF RESOLUTIONS PASSED BY NEW ORGANIZATION,
SEVERAL OF WHICH AFFECT PORT OF
PRINCE RUPERT

SMITHERS, June 11.—Larry Warner, editor and proprietor of the Interior News, was chosen first president of the Associated Board of Trade of British Columbia organized yesterday. R. C. McCorkell of Vanderhoof is vice-president, and Harold Mathews of Smithers is the secretary-treasurer. The executive is to be made up of the presidents of member boards.

Among the resolutions passed by the organization was one asking for a lower freight rate on coal from Alberta to central B.C. points proportionate to a rate of $4.40 to Prince Rupert, and to reduce the freight and express rate on B.C. grown fruits and vegetables to central B.C. points proportionate to that charged to the prairies thereby to encourage consumption of B.C. products. Reduction of two dollars a ton on hay and vegetables from central B.C. to the markets was also asked.

Another resolution passed was one asking for a local boat to ply from Prince Rupert to the Islands, Portland Canal, Anyox, and the canneries.

The convention asked the Dominion government to construct a telegraph line between Prince George and McBride, to increase the dock accommodation at Stewart, to establish an experimental farm along the line of the Canadian National, to spend five thousand dollars in improving the waters and rapids north of Fort St. James to the head of Takla Lake for the benefit of miners, tourists and fishermen and hunters, which use it extensively.

IS OPPOSED TO OPEN SEALING

WRITER FEARS EXTINCTION OF ONLY
HERD IN WORLD NOW LEFT

SEATTLE, June 11.—Edison Marshall, the American author of outdoor stories, who left here this morning for Vancouver en route to the Yukon last night when interviewed, warned against "free for all" sealing. While on this his seventh trip to the far north he intends to gather facts regarding preparations of seal privateers to undertake hunting expeditions on a large scale as soon as the present treaties expire. He said that while seal coats may be more plentiful and cheaper for the following few years, vast profits would accrue to hunters and it would mean before long the extinction of the only herd of fur-bearing seals in the world that rears its young on Pribilof Islands.
