SCHOOL GIVE ENTERTAINMENT

Terrace Has Novel Santa Claus Who Collects Gifts Instead of Bringing Them

TERRACE Dec. 23. — The Christmas entertainment put on by the pupils of the public and high schools to raise money to provide Christmas cheer for needy families, was held in G.W.V.A. Hall on Wednesday evening and drew a very large crowd, the large hall being filled to capacity with many standing all around the room.

The different items were all well rendered and displayed much energy and ingenuity on the part of the teachers in charge.

Following the program Santa Claus appeared on the scene and instead of the usual gifts and sweets presented to the children as in former years, the children showered him with gifts of toys and clothing to be used in preparing Christmas hampers. Following this the floor was cleared and McLaren's orchestra provided music for a dance. For the first hour the floor was given over to the children who enjoyed the outing to the full.

The following was the program:
"O Canada."
Recitation of Welcome—Division 3.
Song—Division 4.
Recitation—Tom Olson.
Instrumental Trio—Annie, Billy and Jacky Allan.

Play—"Christmas With the Ruggles," Part I.
Piano selection—Elliott Head.
Play—"Christmas with the Ruggles," Part II.

Piano duet—Evelyn and Adeline Thomas.
Recitation—Jean Doll.
Mother, Goose Tableaux—Division 4.
Piano solo—Marjorie Kenney.
Play—Court scene from "As You Like It," High School pupils.
Piano solo—Annie Allan.
Recitation—Ina Smith.
Play—"Christmas in Canada."
"God Save the King."

SANTA CLAUS IN EAST END OF CITY

Father Christmas Arrived on Scene at Rupert East Church Last Night by Following Brief Program

Following a brief program which included the singing of Christmas carols, children's exercises and vocal solos by W. Vandewater with Mrs. Frank Moore acting as accompanist, Santa Claus paid a visit last night to the children of Rupert East United Church Sunday school. Coming down an old fashioned chimney and fire place, Father Christmas had a full kit with him and distributed an abundance of gifts and good things to the youngsters assembled in eager expectation of his coming.

In charge of the event were W. Vandewater, superintendent of the Sunday school; Frank Moore, T. Ross Mackay, Mrs. B. G. Beale, Miss Lillian Worsfold, Miss Phyllis Way, Miss Kathleen Duncan and Miss Jean Wilson.

WERE MARRIED LAST EVENING

Miss Bella McKenzie and David Eastman Principals in Pretty Wedding in Manse

A pretty and interesting wedding took place at 7 o'clock last evening in the Presbyterian Manse when Rev. J. R. Frizell united in marriage Miss Isabel McKenzie, eldest daughter of Duncan McKenzie, 37 Ambrose Avenue, and the late Mrs. McKenzie, and David Eastman, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Eastman, 617 Eighth Avenue East. The ceremony took place in the presence of a gathering of relatives and friends of the contracting couple.

The bride had a charming appearance in a wedding gown of white crepe-de-chine trimmed with lace. She wore a bandeau of orange blossoms and her bouquet was of pink carnations. She was attended by her sister, Miss Chrissie McKenzie, as bridesmaid, who was pretty in shell pink crepe-de-chine trimmed with gold lace and who wore a silver bandeau and carried a bouquet of carnations.

The groomsmen were James Underwood. After the ceremony a reception was held in the Boston Hall where some seventy friends were gathered to do honor to the bridal couple. The bride was assisted in receiving by the groom's mother who wore a handsome gown of navy blue trimmed with gray and with hat to match and the bride's sister, Miss Agnes McKenzie, who was dainty in pink and mauve crepe-de-chine. The bridal table was centred with the wedding cake which was cut by the bride. The toast to the bride was duly proposed and responded to and the evening's festivities concluded with dancing, music being by an orchestra led by A. L. Sharpe.

During the reception Mrs. Jarvis McLeod sang and an interpretive dance was given by Miss Katherine Eastman.

Piper Alex MacDonald played the McKenzie Highlanders March as the bride and groom entered the hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Eastman will take up residence on Tenth Avenue East. Both bride and groom are well known and popular amid a wide circle of friends, having resided in Prince Rupert for many years. Mr. Eastman is a member of the staff of the Prince Rupert Dry Dock and Shipyard and is well known as a musician. Mrs. Eastman has resided here with her parents since early girlhood. They will receive general congratulations and good wishes.

WELL KNOWN COUPLE WED

Miss Pearl Thompson Becomes Bride of George Howe at Ceremony in Anglican Rectory

A wedding of considerable local interest took place at 8 o'clock last night in the Anglican Rectory when Ven. Archdeacon G. A. Rix united in marriage Miss Pearl Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Thompson, Eleventh Avenue East, and George Howe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Howe, 336 Ninth Avenue West.

The bride, who wore a pretty wedding dress of white crepe-de-chine trimmed with pearl beads and carried a bouquet of white carnations, was attended as bridesmaid by her sister, Miss Marion Thompson, who was dainty in pink crepe-de-chine, also carrying a bouquet of white carnations. The bride was given in marriage by R. Cameron.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the groom's parents with about thirty-five guests in attendance. The bridal table was centred with the wedding cake which was cut by the bride. The toast to the bride was proposed by R. Cameron, the groom responding suitably. Many gifts were displayed, testifying to the popularity of a wide circle of friends of the contracting couple. Dancing was enjoyed until the early hours of the morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Howe will take up residence at 324 Ninth Avenue East. The groom, well known in the city, is a member of the dry dock staff, while the bride was formerly a member of the Prince Rupert Hospital staff.

The thought of those precious hours her shining New Hoover will save her through the months and years to come, will brighten her Christmas day as no other gift you could give her. And as she goes about her never-ending battle with dirt, each day she will have more time for rest—for things far more worth-while than housecleaning. Give her the one electric cleaner that meets all cleaning demands completely! Allow us, won't you, to show you the difference between a New Hoover and a vacuum cleaner? Five minutes at our Demonstration Booth is all the time it will take.

This difference is due to Hoover's exclusive principle of "Positive Agitation." Because of it, The New Hoover actually gets out more than twice as much dirt from a rug, in the ordinary cleaning time, as even former Hoovers!

QUIETLY WED LAST EVENING

Archdeacon Rix Officiates at Nuptials of Miss Ruth M. Lemon and William B. McCallum

At the home of the bride's mother, 637 Fifth Avenue East, the wedding took place quietly at 7 o'clock last evening. Ven. Archdeacon G. A. Rix officiating, of Miss Ruth Mary Lemon, daughter of Mrs. M. Lemon, and William Baxter McCallum, son of Mr. and Mrs. McCallum of Vancouver. Only immediate friends and relatives were in attendance and witnesses of the ceremony were the bride's mother and her brother, Myles Lemon.

After a brief reception, Mr. and Mrs. McCallum sailed on the steamer Prince Rupert for Vancouver where they will spend a honeymoon visiting with the groom's parents. Returning to the city in two or three weeks' time, they will take up residence in Prince Rupert.

Congratulations and best wishes were generally extended to the couple who are well known amid a wide circle of friends. Miss McCallum for five years was a member of the staff of the land registry office in the provincial government buildings. She received many presents from her associates in the government service including a beautiful coffee percolator set from the staff of the land registry office. Mr. McCallum has been a member of the staff of Rose, Cowan & Latta here for several years.

BAPTIST CHRISTMAS TREE LAST EVENING

Both Young and Old Enjoyed Entertainment by Children of Sunday School

Last evening the Sunday school of the Baptist Church held their annual Christmas tree when the church was well filled with children and adults. The artistic decorations were arranged by the teachers of the school. Those taking part in the program were as follows: Recitation by Georgina Lamb, David Houston, Amaranth Bury, Charles Bunn, Dorothy Blake, Jessie Brand, Donald Blake and Phyllis Hamblin. Songs by Edith Johnson, Enyd Morris, Georgina Lamb, and Hazel Mastin. Fairy Song by Miss Bunn's class, Welcome Song by D. Miller's class, and Action Song by Mrs. Linzey's class. The primary department gave interesting choruses. A dialogue by Misses Enyd and Eva Morris concluded the program. Old Santa Claus then came on the scene and gave each scholar a gift and a bag of candy and proved a source of much merriment.
