LADIES' BASKETBALL SERIES POSTPONED

Suitable Date Not Yet Reached For Engagement of Anyox and Prince Rupert

Late Saturday night, Ralph Smith, secretary of the Prince Rupert Basketball Association, received word from Anyox that they could send their team this week for the series of games with the Maple Leafs. The association, however, considered that the reply was received too late for proper advertising and arrangements and so have wired Anyox, postponing the series until a later date. Next week, Governor General Willingdon and party will be visiting in the city so it is possible the series will not be played until after Easter.

MUCH ACTIVITY IN REGISTERING

FOUR HUNDRED NEW NAMES PLACED ON PROVINCIAL LIST AS RESULT OF MAYOR'S EFFORTS

NOT LAST CHANCE

Some 400 new names are going on the provincial voters' list which closes today, mainly as a result, it is understood, of the efforts of Mayor S. M. Newton who is a self-announced Conservative candidate for the next election. Up to today it is reported the Liberal and Conservative organizations had been inactive although there might be some last minutes surprises.

Depending, of course, on when an election may be held and present indications are that there will not be one for a year at least, this will probably not be the last opportunity for registrations to vote at the next election. This is the last day for registering only so far as the court of revision to be held on May 16 is concerned. Intending voters may register at any time and their names will come before the next court of revision following the forthcoming one.

It rests with the discretion of the government when courts of revision may be held. If there should be an election within three months it is reasonably certain there would not be an intervening court of revision. If there should be an election called within from three to six months' time there would be a court if the government so chose. On the other hand, if the election should be six or more months' time, there would be certain to be another court of revision.

LICENSE OF GRAND TERMINAL CLUB IS CANCELLED BY VICTORIA

On Saturday, Sergeant Hannah, chief of the city detachment of the provincial police, received instructions from Victoria to collect the license of the Grand Terminal Club. As the license had been cancelled, it was taken to police headquarters and the club has now been closed as a club. It is understood that the billiard parlor and cigar store will continue to operate as a private enterprise.

This action by the provincial authorities is believed to have been taken as a result of a recent conviction of conducting a common gaming house and also for serving liquor in the club after the specified hours of closing.
