KETCHIKANIS NOT COMING

ROTARY VISIT ALSO SAID TO BE CANCELLED BY CHANGE

It was decided by the Diamond Jubilee of Confederation Celebration Committee last night to cancel the proposed series of baseball games between Ketchikan and Prince Rupert. It was so decided because Prince Rupert had made a proposition to Ketchikan some time ago with a view to arranging for such a series but, up to last night, the northern town had not replied. Instead of this best two games out of three between the Gyros and Sons of Canada, City Senior League teams, for a set of sweat-

After the meeting last night, a telegram was sent to Ketchikan announcing cancellation of the arrangements for the baseball series. This morning a reply was received stating Ketchikan's willingness to accept the arrangements that had been made. The telegram also came, however, too late to change the action decided on.
