LOCAL ELEVATOR HAS LOADED 20 BOATS WITH 5,579,878 BUSHELS DURING PAST WINTER

The p'ant's shipping season closing with the departure at midnight last night of the Japanese steamer Yomei Maru for Vancouver en route to Japan with 176,962 bushels on board, it was announced this morning by Joseph Bennett, superintendent of the Alberta Wheat Pool's Prince Rupert elevator, that twenty ships had loaded through the big house since its opening last fall. taking to the markets of the world a total of 5,579,378 bushels of grain of which all was consigned to the United Kingdom or continent except 396,962 bushels which went to the Orient. All but two of the twenty boats loaded full here and the most of the ships chartered were Japanese although a few were British. The plant worked satisfactorily and the year's work, Mr. Bennett said. was just about what was estimated before the opening of the season. With practically no grain in the big house now, it will be a slack season at the plant from now on until about the middle of September when the grain will probably start rolling again from the prairies, the movement getting volume in October.
