TWO BIG TOURS ARE COMING THIS WEEK

Group Organized by Northwestern Railway and Another by Raymond Whitcomb

The northwestern Alaska tour No. A2 which arrived in Vancouver from the United States Sunday will be in Prince Rupert Wednesday and will also visit Alaska, returning by Jasper, Winnipeg, Duluth and Chicago.

The Raymond Whitcomb land cruise No. 7 will arrive in Prince Rupert Friday of this week and will proceed by Canadian National steamships to Stewart, afterwards going by Kitwanga and Hazelton, where they will see the totem poles and other Indian relics, to Jasper and Mount Robson and thence to New Westminster. There are 55 in the party.

The structure will be representative of the most up-to-date, elaborate and comfortable in modern theatre building and the undertaking will be a decided acquisition to the architecture of the city. While primarily designed as a moving picture auditorium, it will be of such a nature as to be able to take care of any theatrical needs of the city. One of its features, also in line with modern theatre building, will be a large pipe organ.
