ANNUAL PICNIC HELD SUNDAY

Canadian National Employees Had Splendid Day at Interior

Centre

The Canadian Employees' annual picnic to Terrace this year took place yesterday in the best of weather, and over seven hundred people took advantage of the excursion to visit the fruit district and enjoy the fine air of the inland,

The run was made in good time and part from a shower in the afternoon

Terrace residents did all possible to entertain the visitors and all reports state that it was a fine outing. Many went to Lakelse, others to various parts of the surrounding country.

The baseball game was called at the sixth with Prince Rupert well ahead. The grassy diamond was something different for the visitors to play on and they found it must softer than their own

Alice Arm Mines to be Developed by Vancouver Interests That Have Bond on Them

The Victor Spencer interests, of Vancouver, who last year bonded the Rec Point, Vanguard, Homestake and Copper to apply for a lease of the following program of work well under way, says the Alice Arm Herald. On Tuesday the compressor plant recently installed at the Red Point was have been put in on the No. 1 body about 50 feet from the portal of the tunnel the drill will be put to work extending the main crosscut tunnel that up to now has been driven by hand. This tunnel will be driven until the big ore body known as No. 2 has been cut which it is expected will be done at about an additional 100 feet. At the present time the tunnel is in about 325 feet. Tunnel Commenced A contract for a tunnel 100 feet in length was commenced this week on the Copper Cliff property. The contract was taken by Jens Larson, an experienced hard rock man of the district. If success is attained in the driving of this tunne distance and future plans will then be made regarding development.

Development of the Homestake has not yet been commenced. An examination is being made and it is expected that work will be commenced between the 20th and 25th of this month.
