

Neglected Eyes

NEGLECT is doubtless the cause of most of the ills that afflict humanity. This is so self evident that it seems hardly necessary to tell you. If your eyes are giving trouble, have them attended to—and at once.

OF ALL absurdities in the kingdom of foolishness, surely the loss of eyesight through neglect is the most inexcusable.

DON'T lose health and efficiency through neglect. Come and see!

HIGH DEFEATS BOOTH SCHOOL

Junior League Leaders Added Another Victory to Their Credit on Saturday

High School added another victory to its credit on Saturday by winning over Booth by three clear goals in the Junior Football League.

Playing down hill, High was the first to attack but Bacon brought play to the other end where he shot over with the goal at his mercy. Roy Morrison was prominent for High but shot past. Bussanich was good for Booth and kept his wings well supplied with fine passes. Cameron was dangerous but Wingham robbed him. When Dickens stopped him and Fisher cleared for High, Dickens and Walters made a good wing and Thurber had to dash across to clear. Then Cameron opened the score for High and right after, Wicks scored again with a shot that gave the goalie no chance. Booth was unlucky to be behind on the play. Bacon and Walters were dangerous for Booth. McKay at the other end cleared his lines. Bussanich again sent his forwards off and Dickens made a good run but finished weakly. Walters had very hard luck with a splendid shot that just topped the bar. Cameron then narrowly missed converting a centre from Wicks and half time found High leading two to nil.

Booth attacked and Scott had to clear. Walters narrowly missed. Thurber cleared but Walters again was dangerous. In a break away, Walter Johnson missed an open goal. Wicks centred well. Scott saved finely from Walters. Nelson was a fine defender for Booth and Bussanich was dangerous. Wicks and Cameron shot past. McKay and Bacon finished weakly. Morrison made a good run but Nelson cleared cleverly. Scott saved from Dickens and a moment later the latter finished a clever run with a splendid centre but the chance was lost. Then Wicks took a corner kick and Stiles headed a good goal. Booth attacked again but, though Dickens and Walters combined well, there were no goals. The end came with Booth pressing strongly and taking many corners but the High defence was too good and High ran out winners three to nil.

Teams: High—Scott, Fisher, Stiles, Thurber, Cameron, Larkin, Wicks, C. Johnston, W. Johnson, Batt, Morrison.

Booth—W. Cross, Nelson, Murray, Iverson, McKay, Wingham, Walters, Dickens, Bussanich, Wood, Bacon.

Referee, J. Campbell.

Linesmen, Geo. Cochrane and J. Wilson.

LAST SHOOT OF SEASON IS HELD

Many Prizes Offered for North B.C. Regiment Marksmen—A. Wylie Cleans up

The final shoot of the season of the North B.C. Regiment Rifle Association on the McNicholl Creek ranges was held yesterday. Eleven marksmen turned out and the weather was ideal for shooting.

In the division for first class shots scores were as follows:

A. Wylie	35	32	33-100
W. Brass	33	32	30-95
R. W. Cameron	26	31	30-87
C. V. Eviitt	26	31	29-86

First prize, gold medal; second prize, silver medal; third prize, bronze medal, fourth prize, turkey.

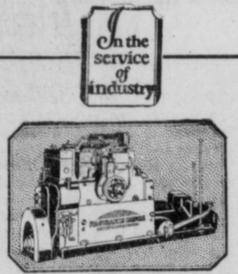

Second Class
A. Squires	20	32	26-78
Bruce Wilson	27	26	21-74

First prize, silver medal; second prize, bronze medal.

The Royal Arms Cup was won by A. Wylie who made the best ten shots at the six hundred yard. His score was 46 out of a possible of 50. Wylie also won the spoon for the highest score at the three ranges.

weight crown, Jack Dempsey announced that he was through with the ring. Apparently, however, the former title-holder has changed his mind for Dempsey soon got in touch with Tex Rickard with a view to entering the next series of elimination bouts from which will be selected Tunney's next opponent. Dempsey says it won't take him long to get ready and Rickard seems to be willing so the possibility of another Dempsey-Tunney scrap for the crown looks very likely within a year. There seems to be little doubt in the minds of fight fans that Dempsey will have little if any trouble in again battling his way at least to the threshold of the throne.

George F. Getz, Chicago millionaire who took the Tunney-Dempsey fight to his home town, as a "civic duty" probably never will help Tex Rickard promote a boxing bout again but he is by no means through with heavyweight sporting ventures. Well satisfied with the battle of almost three millions, and its effect upon home industry, Mr. Getz has left for Africa where he expects to fight a battle of his own against such heavyweights as elephants and hippos. Most of his quarries he hopes to capture alive and bring back to a farm in Holland, Mich., which already is well stocked with pythons and tigers.

WILL ATTEND WORLD SERIES

Local Business Man Taking in Big Sporting Events While on Trip East

CANADA BOOM EXPECTED

J. C. Gavigan, proprietor of the Rupert Table Supply Co., who attended the recent bout at Chicago between Gene Tunney and Jack Dempsey for the world's heavyweight boxing crown, cleaning up big on that affair, will now attend the World Series baseball games at Pittsburgh between the Pirates of that city, National League champions and New York Yankees, winners of the American League pennant. In a post card to a member of the Daily News staff, Mr. Gavigan says about the fight, "The best man won and I would back him tomorrow with all I own."

Mr. Gavigan wrote from Detroit where he attended a family reunion, the first in sixteen years. He states that the new Ford model will not be ready at Detroit before November 1, if then. "From what one hears here," says Mr. Gavigan, "Canada is on the eve of period of wonderful times."

Mr. Gavigan, while in the East, is also visiting Toronto, Buffalo and Niagara Falls. He and Mrs. Gavigan expect to be home some time before the end of the month.

FEW DEER ARE TAKEN SATURDAY

Many Hunters go out but Bag are Slim—Alex, Finnie and Charlie Balagno Successful

The buck which was tied up on Ridley Island Thursday afternoon by George Bryant and Bill Willscroft for the benefit of Tommy McMeekin was duly shot yesterday afternoon but not by Tommy although his boat brought it home. Alex Finnie was the skilled marksman who brought down the beauty and George Johnstone acted as his navigator. Tommy McMeekin was not present.

Shef Thompson, caretaker of the Prince Rupert Rowing & Yacht Club, announced in his Monday morning bulletin on week-end operations, that the only other successful hunter was the redoubtable Charlie Balagno whose first trip of the season was rewarded by bringing down a buck in the hills around Tucks Inlet. Charlie was a member of a party which went out with George Bryant on the Harla.

There was a siege by some thirty or so nimrods in the woods across the bay but too many cooks apparently spoiled the mulligan for no game was brought home though many shots were fired.

Fine weather made hunting conditions very pleasant.

M. P. McCaffery returned to the city on the Catala yesterday afternoon from a brief business trip to Vancouver.

CHALLAMBA WILL BE BROKEN UP SEATTLE

Big Motorship, Which Went on Rocks South of Here During Summer, to be Scraped

The big motorship Challamba, which was badly damaged late in June when she went on the rocks down the coast from Prince Rupert and was taken to Victoria, has been sold to Seattle interests and will be taken to the Puget Sound port where she will be broken up. The Challamba, which piled up while bound north to Alaska with a heavy cargo of freight, was built in 1918, having been laid down for the Australian government.

Sergeant Alex McNeill, provincial police, sailed last night on the Catala for Anyox and Alice Arm on official duties.
