Intensive Preparations for Cannery Season—Herring Seining and Salmon Trolling — General Doings Along "Front"

Salmon canneries in the district are resuming work on their equipment in earnest this month preliminary to the summer's operations. The market for canned salmon is reported to be favorable and indications are that the new pack will find its predecessor no competitor for sales.

Last year's pack was disposed of even more easily than had been expected, say men in touch with the foreign marketing of the fish. British and continental European buyers are reported to have sold easily and will be cleaned out by the time the new pack is

BEHOLD! THE MAYOR!

His Worship the Mayor was a lon absent visitor to the waterfront this week. He was seen with a sheaf blue papers in his hand and those who profess to know say they were registration forms. They say that an election is coming and that Sam is early at the scratch. No doubt another fishermen's friend for a season. They always get that way but they're not always permanent. Here's hoping this one will be different.
