Dear Readers-Picnic time is with us!

Almost everybody goes picknicking or at least takes a picnic lunch on motor trips.

Picnics suggest ham sandwiches and we suggest our superior hams which slice up beautifully for that use. They are particularly delicious in flavor and texture.

You want cheese, too, for sandwiches. Buy our Kraft, Goat, Ingersol, Gorgonzola and Edam Cheese which cut just right for sandwich making-no waste.

Olives of full flavor and large size. Bottles of all sizes. Stuffed olives, too, and ripe olives.

Cocoanut bars, cakes, crackers, and Dr. Middleton's macaroons and whole wheat cookies.

Any kind of bottled drinks you want.

Paper napkins, waxed paper, straws.

When you are going picnicking or touring, see us and get the things that make the event so much pleasanter.

Call 18 or 84 for anything you need and ask us about other things new to you. Yours very truly,

IN LITTLE MICHIGAN TOWN

FRANKLIN, Mich., July 12 .-- Incensed the sight of Douglas McLean losing his trousers in the comedy, "Let It Rain," Rev. Leo Hooper, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, wrecked two projecting machines in the community

For several weeks the pastor had conducted a vigorous campaign against bringing moving pictures into this little

The women's auxiliary of the church arranged several weeks ago, however, for a moving picture company to bring films here every Friday night.

Hooper spoke against the action both from the pulpit and in front of the community hall. The deacons of the church did not support him by a majority vote, it is said.

Friday night, according to Frank Schram, Oakland county deputy, the minister attended the picture show bearing a hammer. Just as the crowd was rollicking with merriment at the leading man's trousers being cut off, Hooper jumped up and knocked the machines

Not Many Strawberries Offering But Raspberries Just Coming in; Other Changes

The price of eggs has advanced, fresh eggs being up 3c a dozen wholesale Vancouver. Further advances may

A shipment of very fine fowl from Topley arrived last week but local demand for fresh poultry is poor. In the beef market prices rule steady with very little decline. This market is expected to ease off somewhat shortly. The butter market shows a decline of 1c per lb. wholesale today. Further drop possible. Retail now is quoted at

An unusual feature of the sugar market is a decline of ten cents per hundred effective last Friday in Vancouver With the preserving season at hand this is hard to explain and no further decline is expected.

There is no change in the price of flour yet. With the market bullish an advance is probable, and local dealers are expecting notification at any time. Local spinach is on the market. The most popular line in the fresh vegetable market is green peas. Retailing at lbs. for 25c the quality is extra good. Prices for green and yellow beans are high but with the arrival of local shipments the Vancouver market will drop and a lower price is expected.

Apples are very scarce, only a few firms having any on hand. While a few new apples appeared on the Seattle market no new ones are expected locally as they will not stand the shipping north.

A new line in the local market is the grows." At 121/2c a lb. these are good value. Loganberries are expected from a model country, to hate religion, the south next week, and raspberries will come at same time. Terrace strawcial system of Canada and to look for berries are selling at 20c per basket but the supply is limited and recent rains have made picking slow. Only three cases arrived on Sunday's train.
