For "Goodness" Sake

beware of any baking powder that contains alum. It is apt to give your cakes, biscuits, etc., a bitter taste. Besides that, health authorities do not consider alum to be good for the health. Far better to use the old, reliable—

Magic Baking Powder
It contains no alum

We could reduce the cost by using alum, but we would then be lowering the quality. The only ingredients in Magic Baking Powder are the finest grades of phosphate, starch and soda, expertly blended. "Magic" gives you best results and is truly wholesome. Refuse all substitutes—even if you are offered "free" crockery as an extra inducement.

Man in the Moon

WHEN not to return and sing again is one of the lessons young musical artists should strive to learn. Nothing is so tiring to some people as to hear a song or even a verse of a song repeated.

HE sang and then he listened long
And wondered if he really might
Return and sing another song
His final chance that night.

He heard the audience clap its hands
His friends tried hard to make it last
And when they gave a vigorous cheer
Out front he came, the die was cast.

The audience groaned and gently swore
They did not want again to hear,
But spite of angry looks and tired
He sang and they refrained to jeer.

I WONDER how many local performers realize that an audience sometimes cheers just to let the singer know they are glad he has stopped.

ARRANGED QUICK.

A mother called her little daughter to her. "Just imagine, dear," she said, "Aunt Mary has a new baby, and now mamma is the baby's aunt, papa is the baby's uncle, and you are her little cousin."

"Well," said the astonished little girl, "wasn't that all arranged quick-"—Yorkshire Post.

HIS HONOR FOOZLES.

We know well enough what he meant, but what the new country Magistrate actually said in his address was: "So long as I am on the bench you can rely upon me always tampering with justice and mercy."—Boston Transcript.
