THE PIONEER LAUNDRY KIDS

WHEN she found out that this was the place to send the family's clothes she also discovered that we would make her a special rate for the family laundry. She told her friends about it and they told their friends about it and this is getting to be quite a family laundry.

Waterfront Whiffs

Quiet Time on Waterfront With Salmon Chief Topic of Conversation — Fishing Parties are out and Boats Coming and going.

The waterfront has been enjoying the good weather and seems to have been taking things somewhat easy.

Halibut landings for the week (Saturday to Friday) total 913,800 pounds. Of this, American boats were responsible for 641,000 pounds and Canadian boats 272,000 pounds. Prices have been lower and in a few cases the boats have preferred to take their fish to Seattle. The price is after all governed by the supply and demand and large sales of fish which would arrive on the eastern markets just at the week-end usually force the price down.

The Chief Zibassa brought in 5,000 pounds salmon on Thursday, but the salmon are not in large numbers so far.

The Grier Steratt is at the drydock as a result of striking a rock in the Nass river. Considerable damage was done to the bows and thee ngine bed shifted. The boat was going slowly at the time as there was fog, and fortunately she was not fully loaded.

Fishery regulations have been changed somewhat in view of the large number of boats operating. The close season now is from 9 a.m. on Friday till 6 p.m. Sunday. This applies to the Skeena grounds, Shawatlans, Cloyah and Prince Rupert Harbor areas.

The Ward ways have been busy and the halibut boats Gibson, Erickson, Moresby and Tahoma have been on.

The trollers Penelope and Tecla have also been in port.

The Gibson, Skipper Chris Hendrickson, has been chartered by the Millbay Cannery to seine on the Naas.

The seine boat Helen L. has been in for minor repairs.

The Lincoln from the Langara Packing company pai da visit to port during the week.

Inomar 2, Hank Haskamp and party went up to Ketchikan and returned on Thursday. The weather was vile, mostly rain and fog and it was not till they were back within sight of Prince Rupert that they saw the sun.

A feature of the Haida Chief, which was in port again for a short time is that she is one of the first Canadian boats to be fitted with an electric motor to operate the seine table roller.

Albert and McCaffery are expecting the Salvor in with a hundred tons of coal.

The motor boat of the Laminated Materials Company of New Westminster, is in port and looks as if she has been in trouble. This boat went up the river to tow cottonwood logs and it looks as if one of the logs wouldn't tow, but upset the boat. She seems to have been submerged.

The arrival of the lighthouse tender Estevan was of interest, and one of the first duties of the officers was to go up to greet Mother Clapperton. As chief-engineer Sutherland manipulates the violin it is only to be expected that there would be a musical entertainment. Captain Harry Bilton, and second engineer Tom Morrison were assisting and of course Doc was conductor and generally chief noise. They had a good time anyway.

It may have been that music hath charms or that the chief steward had too many rats aboard. But Doc's cat has joined the staff of the Princess Beatrice. So far she has been in the lap of luxury. There are rats galore and her expert handling of the rodents that are chased out for her benefit has entitled her to all the nice things that the chief steward can say or give her. So Skeezix is fraternizing with the C.P.R. tourists.

The waterfront was upset to hear of Pete Meuse's accident and are looking forward to seeing him on the job soon again. In a way it was lucky that the swing of the knife did not smash the arm.

The arrival of the seine boat Wrinkle will Bally Campbell aboard under the persuasion of a fishery official caused much comment on the front. It is said that his seine net was fifty fathoms short.

The Bingo has installed a new 16 h.p. Vivian and has resumed halibut fishing.

The Field fleet with Cammodore Field on the flagship Moresby, followed by the Northern Exchange, is under charter to the Gosse Packing Co., and has left for Bella Bella.

Those who saw "Nothing but the Truth," on the occasion of its first presentation will recall the Bishop, who was none other than Arthur Sharpe, at that time on the clerical staff of the Cold Storage. Whether it was to get away from the Sulphur Mines or not Arthur has been on the seas since. He has had need of all his episcopal training to maintain a dignified attitude at all times. When the Grier Sterratt bumped into the wharf on the Naas, Arthur's somersault on the taffrail was an unexpected treat for the natives, and a surprise for himself. Fortunately he held on, otherwise it might not have been a joke.

And then the boat goes and bumps into a rock, just when he has got off to sleep. Ichabod, Ichabod, as Arthur worked manfully at the pump.

Dr. H. Lindsy Alexander has a new speedboat. What it can do is a bit of a mystery and Doc is not telling anybody yet.

Fishing is practically over for the present at North Island. Among those returning from there are Arne Barstad, Bill Scotten and Charley Hinton who reports that they have cleared twenty dollars a day during the time they have been there, their total net takings running close to a thousand dollars each for the season so far. They now propose to fish at Barnard Cove for a time.

Oscar Olson of the Irish Belle went south a few days ago with his boat and it was reported that he was going through to Vancouver.

Fishing trips are still very numerous and all report good success in their expeditions. George Bryant is at Khtada with a party. George Rorie is going up to Bill's Lake. Harry Ward, with Mr. and Mrs. Slee of the Malay States, has been to Khtada. They are to return this week end when Hubert Ward plans to take his visitors to Bill's Lake and give them some real sport. Mr. Slee is a very keen fisherman and has been trying out the waters in southern B.C. He has had more sport in these northern waters and is a strong booster for this district.

Sid Anderson's new boat not yet named, is in the water and will soon be engined and ready for use.

Hank Haskamp and party on the Inomar 2 left for Vancouver on Friday afternoon. He has had a busy time renewing acquaintances, many of whom have enjoyed trips on his fine boat.

It is not proposed to attempt to forecast the weather but the yacht club experts are taking heart from the signs of the times and are very busy getting their entries ready and decorated for the big event tomorrow. The only prognostication we rely on is:

You may talk of the signs of the weather,
Of the sun and the moon you may sing,
But to sit on the point of a sharp tin-tack
Is a sign of an early spring.

This can be backed up from experience and after all that is the only justification for a prophet remaining in business.

The Salvage Princess made a trip for supplies to port on Friday.

The Pride of the West is also in on her tour of the various coast ports.

A BIRD.

Hubbie: I just heard the new girl singing in the kitchen. She's a cuckoo.

Wife: She may be a cuckoo but she's no cook.

SCOTTISH PEOPLE LIKE GOOD BREAD

Prefer Canadian Flour Because it is Better Than Any Other

WINNIPEG, July 23. — Canadian wheat serves Scottish taste in bread better than any other wheat in the world, according to Alexander McLeod, a director of the Scottish co-operative Wholesale Society, Glasgow. Three other members of the society, John Pearson, director; William Smith, secretary and James Smyth, accountant, accompanied Mr. McLeod in a visit to Winnipeg recently.

The visitors, who represent the largest buyers of Canadian wheat in Great Britain, spoke very highly of the Canadian system of inspection and sale of grain on certificate.

An inspection of their office in the Grain Exchange, here, and a study of the general conduct of the wheat trade in Western Canada, was made by the deputation. Their society represents a membership of 700,000.

TONS OF TOYS FOR DAUGHTER OF DUKE

LONDON, July 23.—Upon their return to England from their Australasian cruise, the Duke and Duchess of York brought their tiny daughter, the Princess Elizabeth, three tons of toys, or enough to fill several rooms. The problem now is how to get the presents into the royal nursery.

BEATIFICATION OF POPE

ROME, July 23.—The process leading to the beatification of Pope Pius X. who died in 1914, has reached a new stage with the issuance by Cardinal Vicar Pompilj of an edict urging all persons possessing any relics of the pontiff, such as letters or autographs to lend them to the Holy See for examination.
