SOCIAL EVENING AT TERRACE BY ANGLICAN

TERRACE, Jan. 14.—The social held in Progress Hall on Wednesday evening under the auspices of the Anglican attend a meeting of the advisory board Church was one of the outstanding social affairs of the winter. A general invitation had been issued to the public and a large crowd was in attendance. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson had spent much time in decorating and arranging the hall and an inviting and homelike scene was the result. A splendid program of vocal and instrumental music, taking part:

Miss Hallowell, Mrs. O. T. Sundal. Rev. and Mrs. A. W. Robinson, Rev. Wm. Allan, Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Kirkaldy and J. De Kergammaux.

SMITHERS

The Bulkley Valley Farmers' Institute at its annual meeting at Telkwa at the end of last week, passed a resolution asking the government to increase the bounty on coyote to $10 during the fur season and $15 during the summer months. J. Donaldson, H. Willis, E. Barger, W. Sproule and F. M. Dockrill were elected to act as directors and William Croteau was appointed secretary.

The home of William Wilson on his farm in the Glentanna section was destroyed by fire which broke out last Saturday afternoon. All the contents were a loss, no insurance being carried. Mr. Wilson, who was away from the house at time, was unable to account for the origin of the outbreak.

There is a steady movement of ties down the Hudson Bay mountain road from Hanson's camp and the flow of ore from the Duthie mine is being steadily maintained at a narmal level.
