

Perspiration odor kept away easily

when you use this purifying toilet soap

THE offender doesn't notice it—but everyone else does.

At times, everyone of us may be guilty—without knowing it. Even when we think we aren't perspiring, the pores constantly give off odor-causing moisture.

Don't risk embarrassment—use Lifebuoy! So refreshing that millions bathe with it every day. It purifies pores—gives freedom from perspiration odor.

Healthier complexions
Lifebuoy's mild, antiseptic lather keeps complexions clear, smooth and glowing with health because it purifies the skin.

Better still, it removes germs from hands, as well as dirt—safeguards health against germ diseases.

You'll learn to like Lifebuoy's clean, hygienic scent—so wholesome, so assuring of greater safety, yet so quickly vanishing.

Lifebuoy gives extra protection, yet costs no more than other soaps. "Use it a week and you'll use it for life." Get some today.

Crown Colony Days

Away back in the late sixties thousands of acres of British Columbia's timber were sold for one cent per acre, which looked like a fair price—then. Today similar timber is worth from $150 to $200 per acre, so tremendously has timber appreciated in value within the scope of an average lifetime.

What the young growth of today will be worth sixty years from now is beyond computation if it is protected from fire and allowed to reach maturity.

The moral is obvious.

Conscientiousness

A big word with an even bigger meaning. Look at the men we call successful—likely they did their work a little better than they need to and passed by others who did just enough to "get by." Take the successful stores, too—in almost every case they are the stores where the service is better than average—where they go out of their way to please. In no business is conscientiousness more important than in a pharmacy such as:

AUTHOR OF GREEN GABLES PUBLISHING ANOTHER VOLUME

CAVENDISH, P.E.I., Aug. 10.—L. M. Montgomery, who is known so generally as the author of "Anne of Green Gables" and "Emily" series, is to bring out the third book dealing with Emily's adventures this autumn. She has been spending a vacation in her own old home by the sea, which she visits annually for the many delights it affords. This year she is leaving it a little sooner than she expected to, for Premier Baldwin has expressed a wish to meet "the author of books which had given him so much pleasure." He wanted to see "Green Gables" (or the Green Gables country) but according to his published itinerary this will not be possible as he is to spend just one day in Charlottetown. Mrs. Ewan Macdonald is the wife of the United Church minister at Noyal, Ont., so she will go to Toronto and "shake hands" as requested. Meanwhile she is renewing "old acquaintance," which by her is never "forgot."

A man asked a Pullman porter what his tips averaged. The coon replied that the average amount was one dollar. He handed the porter a dollar. He pressed the silver coin affectionately and said:
"Yassuh, boss, but you is the fust pussion what has come up to the average."

be completed by July 10."

The separate investigations proceeded, a large number of witnesses being called before the Governor and the advisory committee.

HUNGER STRIKE

On July 17 Sacco and Vanzetti began a hunger strike. They refused food for a week. Then Vanzetti partook of a single meal and thereafter rejoined Sacco in his refusal to accept food.

Governor Fuller visited the state prison on July 22 and interviewed Sacco, Vanzetti and Madeiros. Vanzetti, the last of the three to be brought into the warden's office, talked with the Governor for an hour. Afterward the Governor announced that he would make a second visit to the prison.

The advisory committee completed its hearing of witnesses on July 21. It heard arguments on July 25 by Attorney Thompson, Herbert G. Ehrmann, associate defense counsel, and Dudley P. Ranney, assistant district attorney of Norfolk county, and then reported that there would be no intervention with the court sentence.

THE LABEL IS RED AND WHITE Its Goodness NEVER Varies

CARNATION Milk is not only the finest, most completely useful milk you can buy—but its high quality is always the same. You can depend on it day after day, year after year. Always, every time, it adds the same wonderful flavor, smoothness, richness, whenever you use it.

For Carnation quality and uniformity is protected right from the source to you. We maintain the Carnation Field Force whose sole job is to watch the production of the milk on the farm. The freshest, richest milk only is accepted at the condenseries—whisked rapidly through cooling rooms, evaporators, homogenizers and into the tins, there to be hermetically sealed for delivery to you, fresh and pure as when it left the condensery.

Order Carnation Milk from your grocer—several tins or a case of 48 tins.
