PAYNE AND FRASER NOW AT UNIVERSAL

Universal Trading Co. Changes Hands; New Owners Will Carry on Business in General Dry Goods, Men's Furnishing and Clothing

Mr. Payne, who has carried on an exclusive Ladies' and Children's hosiery, underwear, ready-to-wear, and corset business in Vancouver has moved his entire stock to Rupert, carrying the finest quality of Canadian manufactured merchandise obtainable, specialising in Kayser, Harvey and Monarch and Stanfield's underwear, D. & A., C. & G. corsets. Most of these lines of merchandise are contract lines which means that the prices set on the goods are the same throughout Canada. Mr. Payne was department manager with Messrs. David Spencer Ltd., Vancouver, for over four years, previous to going into business on his own account, and has a world-wide experience in the dry goods business, starting in Ireland over twenty-five years ago. Mr. Payne will have personal supervision of the dry goods end of the business.

Mr. Fraser is an old timer in British Columbia, coming to the province in 1885, and has conducted business in different parts of the province for over twenty years. He is well known in Northern British Columbia, being in business on an extensive scale at Williams Lake for five years, also in Squamish and North Vancouver for a number of years. Mr. Fraser will have personal supervision of the men's furnishing and clothing end of the business here, and will carry some of the best lines of furnishings and clothing in the trade, at prices to compete favorably with any clothing or furnishing prices in Canada.

They carry a stock now around $25,000 and new merchandise is coming in every day. By the end of November they will be showing a splendid range of seasonable merchandise for Christmas trade.

They cordially invite the public of Prince Rupert to visit the store and see the stock and also make the acquaintance of the new management.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE AT TERRACE PREPARES FOR ORGANIZATION

TERRACE, Nov. 25.—A meeting of the women's institute was held in the lower G.W.V.A. hall on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Dover presided over the meeting and explained the objects of the institute and the advantages to be gained by carrying on community work through that organization.

As the institute year closes on December 31, it was decided not to sign up members until the New Year when a meeting has been arranged for January 4 to be held in the same place. Incorporation under the Societies Act will be carried out in the meantime and a drive in the interest of membership will be conducted.

UNDESIRABLE IMMIGRANTS

Editor, Daily News.

Will you kindly afford me space in your columns to remove a possible misapprehension? Yesterday I had the privilege of addressing the members of the Rotary Club upon the subject of Canada's Immigration Problem. In the course of my remarks I referred to the undesirable foreign immigration coming to this country from Europe and elsewhere. It was my intention to make it quite clear that I did NOT include the Scandinavian peoples in the category of "undesirable immigrants." They are one with Anglo-Saxons in racial origin; their moral, social and political ideals are practically indentical with those of British people; they are excellent settlers, become fine citizens, and are making a splendid contribution to the building of the Canada that is to be. All this I purposed to say, but alas! A cog slipped in my memory, and it remained unsaid—by no means an uncommon experience with public speakers. I should regret exceedingly if any of the men of Nordic origin who were present received the impression that in my judgment they are unwelcome to this country. Nobody has suggested that they did so think, but to prevent so unfortunate a contingency I take the first opportunity of making this explanation
