WHY WE SET 100 100 After conducting another season's uccessful development work on his Tiger mining property, which lies across the Kitsault River from the Dolly Varden Railway and not far from the Toric on which sensational copper discoveries have been made recently, E. C. Pickett. pioncer mining man of Alice Arm district," is a passenger on the Catala to panied by Mrs. Pickett and at Blatr AT NELSON MEETING they will pick up their own car and proceed to Los Angeles to spend the winter. Mr. Pickett reports that the Tiger is looking better than ever and this year it has commanded the interest of a number of prominent companies who have sent their engineers to lock over it.

> Mr. Pickett reports that continuation of exploratory work is disclosing better showings than ever on the Vanguard mine. At the two hundred foot level it was found that the ore body was just twice as large as had been indi-

Commenting on the Toric, Mr. Pickett says that it is a greater mine even than its owners realize.
