URGE ACTION TO PRESERVE FISH

Duncan Board of Trade Favors Dominion Moving in the Matter

VICTORIA, Nov. 10.—Action by the Dominion government to prevent the entire extinction of the salmon fisheries in British Columbia was advocated by the Duncan Board of Trade in a resolution submitted to the Victoria Chamber of Commerce directors for endorsement. The resolution called upon the Canadian Chamber of Commerce to urge the Dominion Government to take immediate steps in this direction. The serious decrease in the salmon pack in British Columbia for 1927 following a marked decrease in the preceding years was drawn attention to. "The recent 'Babcock report' on the salmon fisheries of the Fraser River gives cause for alarm regarding the depletion of this important natural resource," the resolution stated. It was essential, the Duncan board claimed, that this important industry be guarded for future generations and a real policy of fisheries conservation was imperative at this time. J. L. Beckwith moved that the resolution be adopted. The resolution was much in line with the sensible views taken by Mr. Babcock and others. The only fault he might find was that perhaps it was confined too much to the Fraser River. The need for conservation existed throughout the province. Reginald Hayward seconded and the motion was endorsed.

GURVICH-FERGUSON FIGHT.

Anyox, B.C.
 November 4, 1927.
 Sporting Editor, Daily News.
 Just a line to correct the statement made by C. Brown regarding the fight Dido Gurvich had with Jimmie Ferguson. After taking the count in the fifth round Ferguson went to his corner by himself. Outside of having his eye badly cut Ferguson felt fine and reported to work in the morning as usual, not even going near the hospital.

The "Flu" LEFT HER WITH A VERY WEAK HEART

Mrs. Beulah Demone, Pleasant River, N.S., writes:—"Having suffered with the 'flu' a few years ago, I was left with a very weak heart. I was unable to go about, and could not do my housework. I would get dizzy spells and would have to go and lie down. I could not sleep at night as the least little noise would wake me up. I tried different kinds of medicine, but they seemed to do me no good. A friend recommended

I have used five boxes and am much better; do not get those dizzy spells, and can do my own work as well as ever."

The people here can't understand you having such a thing in the paper, and God help the folks in Rupert if they have to depend on chaps like Brown to run their sports.

If you do not want to take my word for the above, kindly let me know by return and I will have a certificate signed by the both doctors here to the effect that Ferguson was not near the hospital. Trusting this will serve to contradict statement made by C. Brown and looking forward to seeing same in your paper.

Yours very truly,
 FRED BROWN.

SPORT CHAT

A long standing controversy between the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada and the Canadian Amateur Swimming Association has been definitely settled through the signatories being attached to Articles of Alliance by officers of the respective organizations. What has been termed as one of the wars of sportsworld was brought about in connection with Canada's participation in the Olympic Games of 1924. It was maintained at that time by the Swimming Association that they had the right to select Canada's representatives for swimming events, while the A.A.U. of C. also made a bid for swimming events—and a rumpus culminated. It has taken all these years to bring about a reconciliation couched in specific terms in the form of an official alliance, in which the A.A.U. of C. concedes to the C.A.S.A. its supremacy as the governing body in the phase of sport including amateur swimming, diving, and Mike McTigue, the Montreal Irishman, called in current Chicago dispatches "The Methusalem of the Ring," has probably made his last comeback. He was a hero of many ring battles, a seasoned veteran, old in years so far as the ring goes, when he won the world's light-heavyweight championship a few years after the war. When he was in turn beaten, it was supposed he was done for as a first ranker. The eliminations of the last year or two however, proved there was something wrong about that dope, and the old fox surprised them all. But no man can beat his age indefinitely, and when McTigue went out in the first round at the Chicago Coliseum last Tuesday week before the undeniably great Mickey Walker, it would seem probable that the shift Mike, a ring general of the first water, has no further come-backs concealed in his fighting heart-iron muscles and tough hide. But his fame is secure, nevertheless.
