SEATTLE PAPER STATES PLAN IS TO DELUGE COAST WITH PRODUCT FROM FREIGHTER

SEATTLE, May 5 .- The arrival in British Columbia waters of the first consignment of British Guiana rum with which a recently formed Seattle syndicate is planning to deluge the Pacific coast market is rumored in local liquor circles, says the Post Intelligencer of this city. The initial consignment is said to consist of upwards of 15,000 fifty-gallon barrels of 140 proof product. This forms the cargo of a steam freighter believed to be lying in a secluded spot along the coast for the purpose of transferring its load to smaller
