GRAPEFRUIT AND GRAPES ARE SELLING

New Seasonal Lines of Fruit Just Arrived But Prices High

Florida grapefruit and Niagara Falls Concord grapes are two seasonal lines which are again appearing in the local stores. The grapefruit being the first of the season are still high in price, although many people will pay the higher price, preferring the Florida to the California variety. There will be only one shipment of Niagara Falls Concord cropes and, as soon as the present supplies are exhausted, consumers will have to fall back on those from the Okanagan.

The season for McIntosh Red apples is now at its height. Pomegranate and cranberries have also made their appearance for the first time this season. Quince is also in and those intending making jelly ought to see about their supplies quickly. Oranges show a slight stiffening in price and will be rather scarcer until the before-Christmas arrivals. Flour has dropped slightly and further drop in price is looked for in keeping with the bumper crop of wheat, while sugar and butter remain stationary.

Today's prices on the local market are as follows:

CRAZED NEGRO SHOT OTHERS AND THEN OWN BODY RIDDLED

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 14.—One man lies at the point of death and 14 others are wounded while the body of Charlie Pinkston, crazed negro who ran amuck to terrorize the negro section, is in the morgue literally perforated with bullets from the guns of more than 100 policemen.

Apparently losing his mind when George Kirkoff, city sanitation officer, attempted to inspect his ice cream stand, Pinkston slashed the inspector's throat and fled to a nearby house where he barricaded himself and took his stand at a window with a shotgun in his hands.

Deputy Sheriff Sam William, eight policemen and six bystanders were dropped by bullets from the shotgun before the negro was stopped. The condition of the deputy sheriff is regarded as serious.
