Everything depends on what they like to see.

Some people, women especially, spend all their time looking into the shop windows while others seek out the libraries, museums and educational institutions. There is a group that thinks chiefly of spendthrift. vaudeville shows while others would meet some of the best citizens and exchange views on the big questions of the day. Everything depends upon the taste of the individual, and the taste of the individual indicates the kind of person he or she is.

MILO EGGERS REACHES B.C.

Milo Eggers, the man who is accused of shooting another man slipping. when trying to steal liquor, has fought successfully against extradition to this country until the past few days when he finally had to leave the care of the Stars and Stripes and drape himself in the folds of the Union Jack. But the old Jack gives protection only to the innocent and not to those who break the law. Eggers will have tent, and if he does not, he is bulla fair trial and if he is guilty will have to pay the penalty. That is headed. why he fought against coming to British Columbia. Expansion and contraction are opposites. You expand your lungs and then you do not contract colds. Breathe deep and your nose will take care of itself.

EVERYTHING IS COMPARATIVE

Sometimes, especially when political campaigns are on, we are the good attendance of the past year. almost led to believe that this is a very wicked country and that corruption is rife. It is only when we compare conditions here with them to the executive, and George Bryant those that obtain elsewhere that we find how efficient are our laws told a good story. and those who enforce them. Conditions here may not be ideal but they are so good that members of the criminal class hate to be caught here.

Education is something a person gets which fits him to learn.

It's wonderful how many people are terribly shocked at the naked truth.

THE JUBILEE

WILL BE READY TO TAKE PART IN CELEBRATION BUT TEACHERS WILL BE GONE

The co-operation of the pupils of the schools in the celebration of the Diamond Jubilee of Confederation was discussed at the meeting of the school board last night. It was pointed out by the school principals that the singing of "O Canada" and other patriotic songs was part of their school curriculum and the pupils would be fully prepared in that respect to join in any exercises that might be carried out.

The chief difficulty in connection with the celebration is that the schools will have closed and the teachers left before the event comes off.

OFFICERS OF ROTARY CLUB CALLED UPON TO MAKE SPEECHES

President Nicholls Dilates Humorously on Duties of Office He Takes Over

When Colonel J. W. Nicholls yesterday took over the position of president from Past President Cyril Orme, following his recent election, he thanked the club for the confidence expressed in him by nitting him on the job. He promised that this would be both his first and Friday, May 13, 1927 last speech while in office. He spoke the harmonious manner in which the club had functioned during the past year. The members of the executive had USIC with the new Orthophonic Victrola I is so real . . . that you lose yourself in its reality. Full bass . . . clear treble . . . natural volume, round and mellow.

You listen . . . you absorb . . . you praise the performance... you call for encores: and you can imagine you see the artist bowing in acknowledgment after his masterful rendition of each selection.

It takes a wonderful instrument to make an impression like that. It requires research, patience and skill to give you the remarkable result embodied in the application of matched impedance, the newly applied principle of "smooth flow of sound" . . . as found in the new Orthophonic Victrola. This principle is Victor controlled.

To hear this instrument of miracles, is to fall in love with it . . . to want it at once. Possession of any of the exquisitely designed models is easy, on convenient terms, from all "His Master's Voice" dealers. Prices are from $775 down to $115. Equipped with electric motor to eliminate winding if you desire, at small additional cost. Demonstrations given always.
