INTERMEDIATE BASEBALL LEAGUE

DECIDED TO RESUME ACTIVITIES AT ANNUAL MEETING LAST EVENING CITY HALL—JOHNSTONE IS PRESIDENT

If suitable arrangements can be made, Intermediate Baseball League activities will be resumed in the city this season it was decided at the annual meeting of the league held last night in the city police courtroom. There was a good turnout and G. W. Johnstone, president, occupied the chair with Mike Budenich acting as secretary.

The league decided to finance its own affairs which will be conducted under the jurisdiction of the Senior League.

G. W. Johnstone was re-elected president and G. S. Russell was named secretary-treasurer. The executive will include delegates from each of the three teams to enter—Elks, Native Sons of Canada and Grotto.

The meeting discussed the possibility of obtaining nights on the Acropolis Hill grounds, this promising to offer quite a problem. Games may be played Wednesday nights, as was the schedule when the league was in operation two years ago, or fortnightly.

Another meeting will be held shortly to receive team entries.
