LIBERTY OF NATIONS

There is always a great deal of talk about liberty. The liberty of nations to conduct their own at a way without interference by Russia or any other contain, must be insisted on. To have the world ruled from Moscow would be extremely dangerous and unpleasant. Apparently the Russian rulers, who are new at the game, have not learned the simple rules of international morality. Time will straighten out everything and in a score of years we shall probably be able to work side by side with Russia without fearing every moment that we may be stabbed in the back.

Worcestershire sauce:

Cold roast meat, fowl or chicken giblets may be very attractively prepared in a similar manner.

Try these uncommon recipes, now that Jack Frost is putting a chill in the air that sharpens appetites for more substantial meals.

Here are several appetizing and satisfying dishes-full of the savour only Colman's Mustard can give. Clip these recipes for future reference.

HAM PIQUANT

1 lb. thinly sliced cooked ham; 1 tablespoon Colman's Mustard: 1/4 teaspoon black pepper; dash of cayenne; 34 cup grated Parmesan or American cheese: Mix the mustard and seasonings with enough milk to form a thick paste. Spread this on the slices of ham and sprinkle each slice with cheese. Stack the ham in the shape of a brick and tie with a string. Bake for 30 minutes in a moderate oven basting occasionally with the ham fat as it runs out into the pan. When cold remove the string and cut in slices downward through the layers.

SMOTHERED BEEF

3 lbs. beef suitable for pot roast; 2 tablespoons flour mixed with 1 teaspoon salt and a few grains pepper; 3 large onions sliced; 3 tablespoons oil or drippings; 1 tablespoon Colman's Mustard; 1 teaspoon celery seed; 1 cup strained tomatoes; 2 teaspoons salt; 1 tablespoon

Dredge the meat with the flour and brown it in a heavy iron pan. Fry the onions in the oil and add the other ingredients. Pour this sauce over the meat and simmer 3 hours or more.

BAKED EGGS AU GRATIN

6 hard cooked eggs; 2 cups milk; 3 tablespoons butter; 3 tablespoons flour; 1 teaspoon Colman's Mustard; 1/2 teaspoon salt; 1/16 teaspoon pepper; 1/2 cup grated cheese; I cup buttered bread crumbs; Make a white sauce of the milk, butter, flour and seasonings. Cut eggs in half and place on shallow baking dish and cover with sauce. Sprinkle with cheese and buttered crumbs. Bake in a moderate ovenuntil the crumbs brown.

WELSH RAREBIT

1 tablespoon butter; 1 tablespoon flour; 1 cup milk; 1/2 teaspoon salt; few grains pepper; I teaspoon Colman's Mustard; 1/4 to 1 lb. cheese: 6 slices buttered toast:

Heat the milk over hot water. Blend together the butter, flour and seasonings, drop them into the hot milk and cook, stirring constantly until thick. Add the cheese. Beat until melted and serve very hot on toast.

DEVILLED SCALLOPS

cups scallops-parboil 5 minutes; 1 tablespoon tomato catsup or chili sauce; 1/2 teaspoon salt; 1 teaspoon Colman's Mustard; 1/2 lemon (juice); few grains

Mix the seasonings together and add to scallops, chopped fine. Serve on round pieces of toast.
