Local R.C.N.V.R. is Host to Commander and Officers of H.M.S. Colombo given in the Moose Hall by the Prince Rupert detachment of the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve in honor of Capt. A. M. Lecky, D.S.O., commander, and principal officers of H.M.S. Colombo which is visiting the port. There were about 200 persons present and an enjoyable evening was spent HE manner in which we "do by all. The function opened at 9 o'clock and closed at 2.30.

Many beautiful gowns were in evimanner in which we launder of the naval officers and the otherwise dence to harmonize with the uniforms dressy effect of the proceedings. With a portrait of the King with the naval motto: "Love God, Honor the King" at one end, the hall was abundantly adorned with flags, bunting and other decorations appropriate to the occasion.

The plece-de-resistance of the evenng was undoubtedly the playing of the hip's dance orchestra of five pieces Tyrwhitt Bettridge. This capable organization, which dispensed enlivening music throughout the evening, has won fr itself considerable note wherever H.M.S. Colombo has called. It has appeared before the King and the Prince of Wales and, during the past year, has done considerable radio broadcasting. It opened the new broadcasting station from the Hotel Georgia in Vancouver last week and has also played programs from KOMO and other stations in Seattle.

At midnight delicious refreshments were served by men of the ship's company who also presided over a tempt-master of ceremonies and the general master Sub-Lieutenant H. H. Ryall, Paymaster Lieutenant Commander P M. Ray and D. C. Paterson of the Navy of the officers mess.

CHALIAPIN SHOWED SHREWDNESS AND A FUND OF HUMOR

MOSCOW, Aug. 25 .- Feodor Chaliapin, opera star, is a good business man on the basis of a story going the rounds in Moscow musical circles.

· According to the story the Soviet Professional Union of Artists sent a representative to Paris to collect from him the equivalent of $100,000, which they pro rata contribution to the Union out of his earnings abroad since 1921, when the title of "People's Artist" was then conferred on him. "That's all right with me," the famous basso replied in the Russian vernacular, and immediately he sat down and wrote a cheque on a Moscow private bank for twice the amount. "I had $200,000 in that bank in 1916," he added, handing over the cheque. "Just cash that and have the goodness to send the balance to me here."
