Chinese Soon Arrested and Money Recovered Following Burglary in Sixth Street Restaurant

Quick work on the part of Provincial Police Constable R. Gilker resulted this morning in the arrest of Harry Wong, Chinese, on a charge of theft and the recovery of a sum of money estimated at $120 which was allegedly burgiarized between the hours of 2 and 6 o'clock Travellers' Cafe on Sixth Street.

The disappearance of the money in question was discovered before 8 o'clock this morning by Tom Wong, manager of the restaurant, who immediately notified the police. The fact that the accused had been discharged from the employ of the restaurant yesterday and had not turned in his keys, coupled with the fact that he was believed to have had knowledge of the combination of the safe, led to him being suspected. Soon the money, alleged to have been the room at the Regent Hotel of the accused who was then placed under arrest. The safe is said to have been stitution being accepted. cleaned of all the cash it contained.

Wong appeared before Stipendiary Magistrate H. F. McLeod in city police court this morning and was remanded to be held at Hallowe'en. for eight days on a charge of breaking and entering.

Training Commences This Week of Large Number Wishing to be Aviators

EDMONTON, Octo 1847 - Training some sixty prospective fliers who have enrolled with the Edmonton and Northern Alberta Aero Club will commence at the Prince of Wales armories on Thursday. This was decided upon at a meeting of the club when some 20 new names were added to the roll of those desirous of becoming aviators.

The ground school will be under the supervision of S. Yorke, who is an officer of the club, while it is intended that a series of thirty lectures will be held during the winter season. Details for carrying out the training course were left in the hands of a special committee which will also arrange for a number of lectures at the university. where aeroplane engines are available for instruction purposes.
