DAILY EDITION

WHAT HAVE THEY TO OFFER?

An Eastern newspaper with strong Conservative leanings, the Ottawa Journal, sees an increase in naval expenditure both Britain and the United States as a result of the breakdown of the 2, Mrs. D. McD. Hunter. Geneva conference, says the Winnipeg Free Press. It points out that Dank cake, iced-1, Mrs. W. G. Sherman President Coolidge has authorized an increase in naval expenditures, Sr.; 2, Mrs. W. B. Cornish. and that "Britain will proceed to build the cruisers her delegates] fought for at Geneva."

The Journal wants to know what about Canada. It claims that "we went to Geneva and took the ground that the British Empire needed more cruisers to protect its commerce," but when Britain E Hellman. and the United States move to increase their naval forces Canada does nothing. This, the Journal holds, is an absurd position for a Mrs. C. G. Minns. country that claims to be a nation and not a crown colony. It pro-

"No one in this country wants an ambitious naval program. We are hardly in a position, financially, to launch a costly navy. Mrs. W. L. Sandison. Nevertheless, nationhood or the claim to nationhood, involves responsibility; and until we accept that responsibility, until, in other Sr.; 2. Mrs. E. Hellman. words, we can say to Britain that we are ready to provide at least | Massey; 2, Mrs. J. L. Lee. some of the defenses of our coasts and our commerce, then all our loud talk about nationhood is but a hollow mockery."

Fate controls most people but the big man is he who controls his own fate.

How can it be possible to save the soul of a person who has no soul?

MATTER FOR CANADA, NOT GREAT BRITAIN

The Journal may have definite knowledge that the Canadian delegates at Geneva took the stand that the British Empire needed more cruisers to protect its commerce, but anything like official endorsation of that statement does not appear to be availble. Hon. Mr. Lapointe, who was the chief Canadian representative, might Hunter; 2, Mrs. A. L. Haines. clear the air on this point. It is rather unlikely that the Canadian delegates took the stand that the British txpayer should spend more money on ships to protect Canada's trade. If they did, they have, we think, misrepresented the sentiment of the Candian people. Great Britain is not called upon to spend one cent for the protection of Canada or Canadian trade. This is solely our own problem. If Kinley; 2, Mrs. D. McD. Hunter. cruisers are needed to protect Canada and Canadian trade, the Canadian people should provide them.

The Journal's statement that Canada cannot afford to put up McD. Hunter; 2, Mrs. E. Hellman. the money and that Britain can is not well based. The British tax- Crabapple jelly-1, Mrs. J. Howe; 2, payer is already paying more than four shillings to the pound in Mrs. J. L. Little. income tax. That means that out of every five dollars he gets in Apricot jam-1, Mrs. A. L. Haines; 2, wages, one dollar has to go to the government. In addition to this Mrs. D. McLeod. he has his local taxation. This is also heavy. If Canada requires cruisers the Canadian en afford to pay for them just as well as the Britisher can. Moreover, it is the business of the Canadian to pay for them.

The gossip microbe breeds in the vacuous mind and is usually fed on filth.

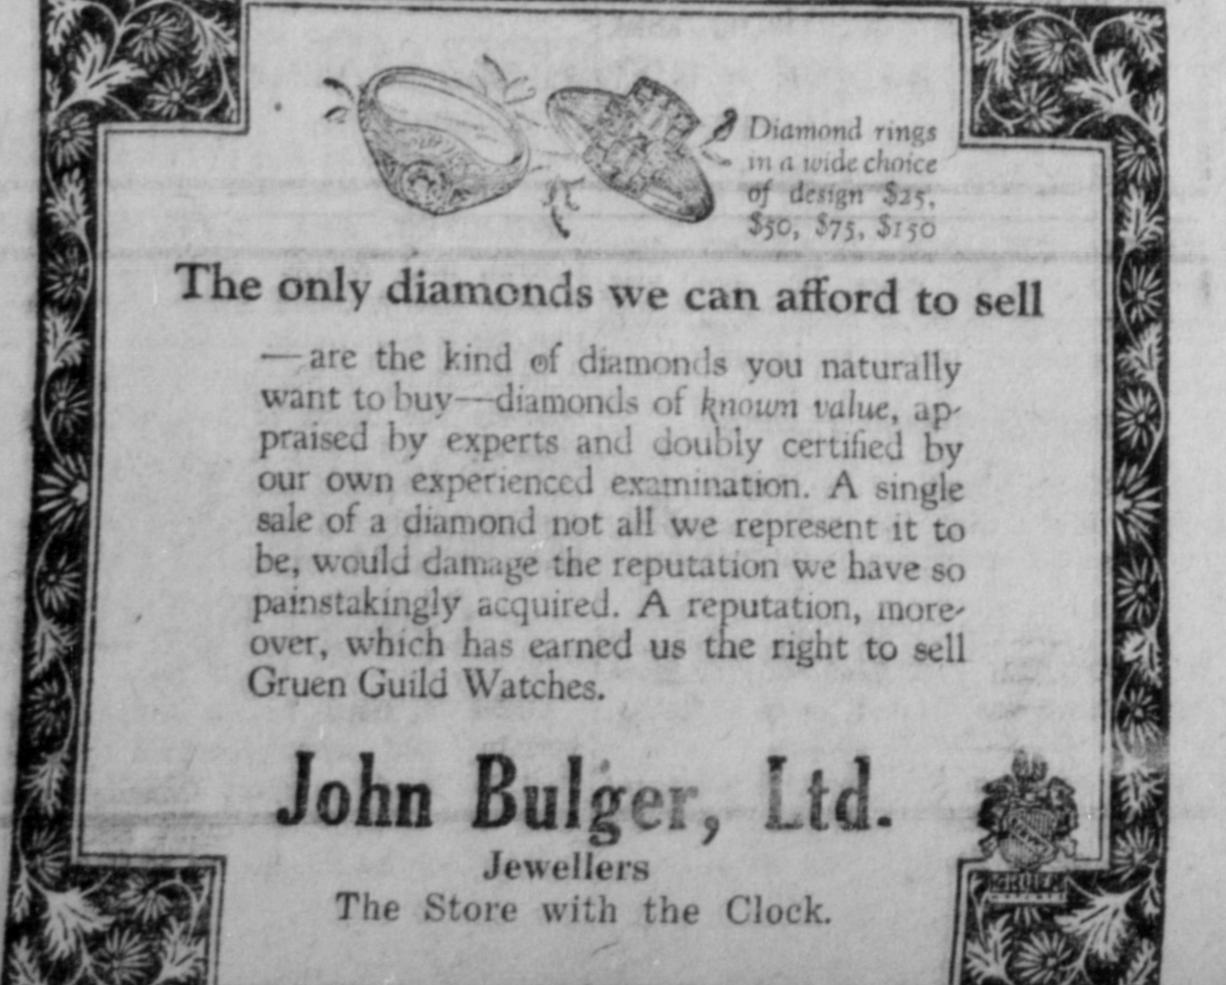

Be a good mixer but be careful of your company or the mixture will ferment.

CHANCE CANADIAN PEOPLE ARE TAKING

However, the Canadian people might be of the opinion that they would prefer to take a chance on Canada getting along without a navy. They might say that they would rather put their money into something else than building and maintaining warships. If war came and Canada found herself in a jam because she had no warships she would have no right to call upon the British navy. Anything that happened to Canada in a case of that kind would be Can- Lee; 2. Mrs. D. McD. Hunter. ada's own funeral. This is the chance the Canadian people would be taking.

Some people are like a moth in a blanket. They carry on their nefarious work silently and in the dark.

Cheer up, there are plenty of fine people in the world still. Yes, very still.

Safe, sure, full value

There is one way by which you can judge the inner quality of a mattress, and that is by the reputation of the firm that made it. Simmons make mattresses to sell at practically all prices from a few dollars up, but whatever the price may be, you know you are getting two things: clean, new, sanitary materials through and through, and—the best quality materials, inside and out, that can be put into a mattress for the price at which it sells.

Simmons are the largest manufacturers of mattresses in the British Empire - the oldest in Canada. Their volume of output and their years of experience enable them to put the maximum value into every mattress they sell.

Buy a good mattress — it will give you more years of greater comfort. But be sure the mattress you buy bears the Simmons label.
