INSTITUTE ORGANIZED AT TERRACE SATURDAY

Board of Directors Chosen Following Address by Visiting Lady

TERRACE, Sept. 7.—A meeting called to organize a Women's Institute was held in the Fall Fair tea-room on Saturday afternoon and was presided over by Mrs. K. Grieve, domestic science judge at the fair, who was also an institute organizer. She gave an interesting talk on the benefits to be gained by handling community enterprises through the medium of the institute. While it was generally felt that there are probably too many organizations in the town now, after considerable discussion it was voted on and the decision made to organize an institute, the work of some of the other organizations likely to be taken in with the institute work. A board of directors was appointed as follows: Mesdames Gilbert, Head, Seamen, Kirkpatrick and Dover. These ladies will appoint officers from among themselves and will arrange for a general meeting as soon as the necessary rules and instructions come through from the head office.

NEW HAZELTON

Recent reports from Bulkley Valley farmers are to the effect that wheat and barley crops are good and wheat will grade high with a lot to ship out this fall. The only grain that will not be up to standard is oats which did not fill so well.

Under the auspices of the Hazelton Hospital, a splendid concert was given here last Wednesday evening by Miss Hildreth Lennox of Barrie, Ontario, pianist, vocalist and elocutionist.

The tram from the Silver Cup mine to the Nine Mile road is now practically completed. Seventeen men are now working on the property and more will be put on when shipping commences. The company will do more building for the accommodation of the enlarged force and everything will be put in good shape for the winter.

SMITHERS

The Smithers Fall Fair this year will not break even financially but the deficit will not be as great as was expected and which was provided for.

Eric Johnson and Ernie Nelson received cuts and bruises and a new Chrysler car was practically demolished in a tumble over the Bulkley hill last week.

Many in Smithers, especially children, are suffering with tonsilitis and whooping cough is also prevalent although precautions are being taken to guard against a general outbreak.

With a force of three men, P. J. Job is conducting work on his group of mineral claims on Hudson Bay Mountain near Lake Kathlyn. The work is being carried out in connection with an examination being made by F. J. Crossland, Vancouver mining engineer, representing Old Country mining capitalists.

W. E. Nelson, mining engineer for the Granby Consolidated Co., is a visitor in this district. He will report on a number of properties including the Schufer and other holdings in that immediate vicinity.

Miss Hildreth Lennox of Barrie, Ont., vocalist, pianist and elocutionist, gave a recital in the Town Hall last Friday evening.

A meeting of Wheat Pool members was held at Telkwa during the Barbecue.

Miss Parker of New Westminster and Mr. Sansum, a brother of Rev. Victor Sansum, formerly of Kispiox, have joined the staff of the public school here in place of Miss Muriel Bowes and Frank Rendle.

Fred Joudry, Prince Rupert optometrist, will shortly visit Smithers and Burns Lake.

On their way home from a motor trip which took them to Vancouver and various points in the Western States, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Kenney of Terrace passed through here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Byrne are on a holiday trip to the coast and will visit Vancouver, Victoria and other points.

Miss M. Jones of Vancouver is here for a two monthe visit with her sister, Mrs. George Turpin.
