VANDERHOOF

The monthly meeting of the Vanderhoof Board of Trade was held last week with Robert C. McCorkell president, in the chair. It was decided to ask the provincial government to raise the bounty on coyotes to $5.00 in the summer, continuing the present $2.50 in the winter. A resolution from the newly formed McBride Board of Trade, asking for the building of the interprovincial highway from Red Pass down the Fraser River to McBride and Prince George, was endorsed and the secretary was authorized to take up the matter of tourist permits with the Terrace, Prince Rupert, Burns Lake, Prince George and McBride Boards of Trade.

The Nechako Valley Co-Operative Exchange has elected officers as follows for the year: president, L. J. Preston; vice-president, D. W. Donald; directors, S. Holmes, John Goldie and Otto Hammond. The net profits of the organization in 1926 amounted to $1,038.37.

Rev. R. T. McFarlane has resigned as minister of the local United Church and a successor is expected about the end of next month. A number of changes are to take place among the clergy of this district very shortly. P. G. McLennan of Topley and Rev. G. B. Switzer of Giscome are leaving in July to attend college in the East and Rev. T. J. Smeeton of McBride is being transferred to another charge in this province. The Vanderhoof mission district is to be divided into two parts whereby ministers will be stationed at Vanderhoof and Fort Fraser.

Twenty-two members have joined the Vanderhoof and District Board of Trade as follows: Harry Zogas, J. F. Kimball, Harry Emslie, Fergus Park, L. R. Dickinson, John McMillan, Samuel Cocker, Charles Maunders, George Snell, Mansell L. Grffin, Joseph Devauld, R. M. Patterson, David Irving, Ernest Smed-
