	under the name Live wire Athletic club. Arrangements were completed for ob- taining the use of the gymnasium room in the Kootenay Hotel, and first work- buts in boxing were held. A few mem- bers failed to show up on account of various objections of their parents, and a special meeting has been called to liscuss these objections. It is hoped to come to some satisfactory agreement with the parents in question, and, if they care to, they may attend the meeting and participate in the discus- sion. The Live Wires are an independent group of boys, all under 19 years, band- ed together for the promotion of all kinds of sport. They handle all their affairs themselves, the executive being elected from and by the boys. The present officers of the club are: Bresi- dent, Cy Jackman; vice-president, Paul Hunden; secretary, Art Waters; and treasurer, Stanley Leno. Laul Hunden was captain of the baseball team.
