SEVERAL INTERESTING DONATIONS ACKNOWLEDGED AT MEETING OF BOARD YESTERDAY AFTER-NOON

A meeting of the Prince Rupert Museum board took place yesterday afternoon in the Bank of Commerce, H. F. Pullen presiding, and there being also present Miss Du Vernet, R. L. Macintosh, Rev. W. E. Collison, and B. J. Mellish. Donations to the museum collection were received and ordered acknowledged. These included a native basket from Henry Edenshaw of Massett, made by his mother, and two ancient codfish hooks from the same donor. An Indian rattle (was received from Rev. W. E. Collison and an ancient stone adze from H. L. Frank of Kitsumkalum, this relic having been found on his farm. It was noted that the collection, which is in the spare room in the Bank of Commerce, is gradually increasing and

NEW YORK, June 15.-The chief things some chief Americans will talk over with equally important Chinese. Japanese and British citizens at the meeting of the Institute of Pacific Relations in Honolulu from July 15 to 29 were outlined in an interview by Dr. Henry Suzzallo, formerly president of the University of Washington, and well known on the coast for his grasp of the problems confronting the various races and nations that live on Pacific shores. How important these problems are to the world in general Dr. Suzzallo said was made evident by the fact that half the human race lives in countries bordering on the Pacific.

"The Institute of Pacific Relations." Dr. Suzzallo said, "meets in Honolulu in July not to legislate or to make resolutions. Its purpose is discussion, frank and unofficial, between leading citizens in the ten countries bordering on or having interest in the Pacific. Americans are often easy-going just because they are prosperous.
