Neglected Eyes

NEGLECT is doubtless the cause of most of the ills that afflict humanity. This is so self evident that it seems hardly necessary to tell you. If your eyes are giving trouble, have them attended to—and at once.

OF ALL absurdities in the kingdom of foolishness, surely the loss of eyesight through neglect is the most inexcusable.

DONT lose health and efficiency through neglect. Come and see!

Her Three Boys Had Terrible Colds That Hung On

Mrs. G. Ames, 25 St. George Street, Chatham, Ont., writes:—"Last winter my three boys had terrible colds and a cough that hung on so long that it began to worry me.

"I went to my druggist and he asked me if I had tried

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup

"I told him I had not, but that I would, and I must say that after they had finished the third bottle they were entirely rid of the cough.

"I will never be without a bottle of 'Dr. Wood's' on hand."

was consulted and promised to see Huggins in New York during the World's Series between the Giants and White Sox.

On the way to New York to confer with the Colonel, Huggins met Branch Rickey, then president of the Cardinals on the same train. Rickey was surprised to learn that Huggins was going to see the World's series at his own expense and, therefore, decided to keep his eyes wide open. Arriving at the Grand Central, Huggins quickly disappeared. He registered at a quiet hotel and sent word to Col. Ruppert, that he was free to talk business, inasmuch as his St. Louis contract had expired. For several days Huggins kept out of sight, while Rickey vainly looked for him at the Polo Grounds. He began to think that the Colonel had forgotten the appointment. But Johnson finally brought them together, although Huggins didn't receive a Yankee contract until two months later. The selection of Huggins to manage the Yankees was one of Johnson's smartest moves and he is entitled to receive belated praise, now that he is in retirement.

Owing to unfavorable weather, Douglas Frizzell has called off until next spring the competition for girls' and boys' junior tennis championship of the city. For the girls' cup Miss Rosemary Winslow and Miss Margaret Gilchrist are the finalists while Joe Scott must play-off with Gordon Parkin for the right to meet Harold Macdonald in the final for the boys' trophy.

Basketball fans are looking forward with keen anticipation to the opening of the season next Tuesday evening. Teams in all leagues are said to be well matched and some interesting play should be seen even in the Ladies' league in spite of the fact that the Maple Leaf team or none of its players will be seen in action. There is talk of the New Metakalians of Alaska coming down early next month for a series with the locals.

At a meeting between the Smithers Athletic Club executive and the committee of the recently formed organization to promote curling permission was granted for the erection of a curling rink on the ice skating property at the corner of King Street and First Avenue in the interior town. Following up this decision it was decided to ask carpenters to tender on the job of erecting the building. This brought in two offers, one for $670 and the other for $1000, the contract being awarded to J. Hahn as the lowest tenderer. A large number of members in the curling division come under the general supervision of the Club and to simplify the whole matter of the standing of these new members it was decided to abolish all membership fees. Progress with the curling club is very good and a strong membership is assured. Sixty members are on the list and this will be increased to the eighty objective without much trouble.

Were piled over the Thanksgiving holiday week-end by many parties with marked success. At least nine deer were landed at the Prince Rupert Rowing & Yacht Club Gulls as well as a core or more geese and ducks numbering in the hundreds. The exodus of hunters was probably the largest since the season opened.

Dr. Cade and party took two deer at the head of the inlet and a group headed by Dr. West got one across the bay.

Welcome Harbor yielded two geese as well as ducks and geese to Jack Lindsay's party with whom more deer were brought home by a smaller party.

Dr. Alexander, Charlie Starr and Claude Kirkendall got a number of geese and ducks up the Eestall River.

Aboard George Bryant's Haris a party consisting of Mr. Bryant, Douglas Stork, Alex McRae and W. E. Williscroft returned home this morning from Quilnias with eight or nine geese and 25 or 30 ducks.

A party consisting of Hubert Ward, Capt. J. R. Elfert, Roy Nicholls and Charlie Eritt are expected back today from Welcome Harbor as are Dave Stuart and Stan Parker and sons from Jameson Inlet.

There were also a number of other week-end hunting parties.

Babe Ruth again occupies his old place as most spectacular outdoor American. There have been usurpers in the spotlight— Lindbergh, Dempsey, Funney and others who have figured in the sensational happenings of the summer. But Babe is the perennial hero of young America, and of America that is not so young, for that matter.

The great achievement has not been in cracking out 60 home runs where only 59 had been cracked out—by himself—before. Nor has it been in "coming back," for he never has been within gunshot of being down and out as the ruler of the empire of Swat.

The big thing that the genial slugger has done is to enthrone himself as the supreme and towering hero of the American national game. Long after other ephemeral stars have disappeared from the scene and there are no more home runs in Babe Ruth's bat, he may still be a legendary figure and his records will be embalmed in the "dope" of the game, to be pored over by the fans for generations to come.

Ban Johnson remained in power as president of the American League long enough to see the Yanks equal the Braves' record of winning four straight World's Series games. This must have been gratifying to Ban, if only for the reason that he was responsible for the engagement of Miller Huggins as manager of Col. Ruppert's team in the Fall of 1917. The little story of the transaction is told for the first time. With no money to spend for ready made stars, Huggins was driving the St. Louis Cardinals into third place that year when a close friend of Johnson suggested the little fellow to lead the Yankees. Huggins' St. Louis contract was about to expire and he wanted to get away. A secret conference was arranged between Johnson, Huggins and a mutual friend, Huggins waxed enthusiastic over the plan and agreed to follow Johnson's instructions. Col. Ruppert
