THERE is a growing conviction here that Stewart is the most advantageous port for the western coast outlet of the Peace River Valley and that the route to this port will eventually be adopted.

J. A. Hall, president of the Bank of Hyder, and his brother, E. E. Hall of Winnipeg, are to open an investment office in Vancouver. It will be managed personally by the former and E. D. Haddon, his son-in-law, has been appointed manager of the Bank of Hyder to succeed him.

William (Red) McFarlane has returnd from Alice Arm.

G. W. Smith's building next the Universal Supply has been rented by Henderson Bros. for an office and living quarters.

The Stewart Board of Trade and Hyder Chamber of Commerce will issue a joint pamphlet setting forth arguments why a railway outlet for the Peace River valley should be built to Stewart The committee in charge of the work will consist of Ernest Blue, representing Hyder, and H. W. M. Rolston, Stewart.
