HIGH SHUT OUT BY BOOTH SCHOOL

EAST END FOOTBALLERS NOW HAVE BIG LEAD IN JUNIOR LEAGUE

In hot weather High and Booth once more met in a regular league fixture and Booth ran out winners four to nil.

High kicked off down hill with only ten men to start. Kane was soon called on but was safe and then Kelsey was prominent with a fine run. For High the two Smiths were always dangerous but Kelsey was too strong and fast to let them get much freedom. Walters and then Kelsey cleared well at the other end from Smith close in. Allen played well and Thomas and Smith got Booth defence in a tangle for Nelson to clear with a fluky corner kick. The game was evenly divided with Johnson defending well for High. Bussanich led his forwards well and opened out the game but Dickens spoiled many chances by being out of position. Wood centred well but the ball was cleared. Booth was now in the ascendancy and Collison shot over. Kane fielded Walters' centre and again Collison shot too high. Smith played heroically but it was Kane who was tested first when he did well to stop Bussanich's shot. Half-time came with the score sheet clear.

High was joined by Miwa now and for the first time this season fielded a full team. Bussanich narrowly missed from a corner kick. Dan Morrison spoiled a nice bout of passing between Bussanich and Dickens. Dickens centred dangerously but Gibson cleared. Dan Morrison cleared well and then Fred Cameron tricked two opponents to open the score with a fine shot. Booth was now on top and following a run in which Kelsey, Walters, Dickens and Bussanich took part Kelsey put Booth another goal up. Wood centred well and Kelsey shot past. Kelsey gave Wood a fine opening but the latter muffed it. He made amends a moment later when he centred well for Kane to be so harassed in clearing that Kelsey blocked his kick and Booth was three goals ahead. High was not giving up and Nelson had to step lively to stop Smith. Kane cleared from Bussanich at close quarters. Thomas got away and High pressed for a spell but was unable to beat the Booth defence. Thurber skied over from a corner and a moment later centred for Cameron to score a nice goal. Bussanich hit the upright with a fine shot and Gillett was prominent in defence. Smith defended well but full time came with Booth good winners.

Teams were: High—Kane, Miwa, Morrison, Gibson, Smith, Gillatt, Sakamoto, Allan, Smith, Johnson, Thomas. Booth—Scott, Kelsey, Nelson, Morrison, Dickens, Cameron, Collison, Walters, Dickses, Bussanich, Thurber, Wood. Linesmen—Gurvich, Minora. Referee—Jack Campbell.
