Neglected Eyes

NEGLECT is doubtless the cause of most of the ills that afflict humanity. This is so self evident that it seems hardly necessary to tell you. If your eyes are giving trouble, have them attended to—and at once.

OF ALL absurdities in the kingdom of foolishness, surely the loss of eyesight through neglect is the most inexcusable.

DON'T lose health and efficiency through neglect. Come and see!

BETTER OFFER ON CITY BONDS

Mayor Newton Tells Council of Negotiations in South With Regard to Sewerage Extension Project

That, during his recent absence in the south, he had obtained an improved offer from Pemberton & Sons for the city's $35,000 issue of trunk sewer bonds, passed upon by the ratepayers at the January election, and that he had obtained the permission of Robert Baird, inspector of municipalities, to embark upon the work was announced to the city council by Mayor Newton last night.

His Worship stated that he had not had time since returning to the city to frame up a formal report on the matter but it would be remembered that the citizens had given their authorization to the undertaking at the last election. Mr. Baird had formerly stated that he would not ratify the sewerage bonds unless a price of at least 97 was received for the issue and the best the city had been able to obtain up to that time had been 95.92. While at the recent Union of B.C. Municipalities convention in Nanaimo, however, he had met Mr. Baird and pointed out to him the difficulties under which the city was laboring in the matter of sewerage, septic tanks having become a constant source of complaint. As a result, Mr. Baird had agreed that, if the city saw fit to sell the bonds below 97, he (Mr. Baird) would offer no objection to the undertaking being proceeded with although, of course, he would not encourage fresh expenditures.

The mayor continued to relate that, after receiving Mr. Baird's consent to the sale of bonds if it was felt necessary, he had interviewed the highest bidders on the city's bonds, Pemberton & Son, and a new offer had been submitted by them which he requested the city solicitor to read.

OFFER FOR BONDS

The offer of Pemberton & Son was split into three proposals, all subject to the provision that the city should sell no further bonds before the end of the year. First, for the issue of $35,000 five per cent sewerage bonds, the company was prepared to pay 96.23 with accrued interest; second, that an option at 96.23 would be taken on a balance of $50,000 of local improvement debentures, and, third, that for the entire issue of $35,000 and $50,000, the company was prepared to pay tentatively, 95.82.

Continuing to speak on the matter, the mayor stated that the city treasurer had informed him that it was immaterial whether or not the city sold the $50,000 local improvement issue at this time. The improved offer for the sewerage extension issue, therefore, would enable the city to proceed with the construction of the trunk sewer this year. It resolved itself into the question of whether or not the new offer should be accepted and the work proceeded with or not.

On motion of Ald. Stephens, seconded by Ald. Larsen, the matter was referred to the finance committee for report.

MAYOR WOULD HELP POOL IN EFFORTS TO GET ELEVATOR

Mayor Newton informed the city council last night that, during his recent absence from the city, he had had the opportunity of discussing the local elevator situation with leading officials of the Alberta Wheat Pool and he had been informed by them that they were desirous of continuing to operate the plant providing satisfactory arrangements could be made with the Dominion government for the renewal of the lease and favorable consideration was given by the city authorities of Prince Rupert. He suggested that the council would do well to meet the Pool on any of its reasonable requirements. He thought the city could make no mistake by meeting the Pool's wishes.

RAILWAY COMPANY IS LIABLE FOR PAYMENT LOCAL IMPROVEMENTS

The city solicitor announced to the council last night that, in view of criticism that had been offered with respect to one clause of the taxation agreement between the city and the Canadian National Railways, he had been in communication with R. R. Nichol, assistant taxation commissioner for the company, and the latter had confirmed his (Mr. Jones') interpretation that the company stood liable for all local improvement bylaw taxation that has been heretofore or might hereafter be imposed. The view had been erroneously expressed that the company would be liable only for local improvements that might hereafter be imposed.

STEWART

P. E. Rees of North Bend, Washington, one of the original locators of the Porter-Idaho, who has been engaged for the past years in mining in Snohomish County, Washington, plans to return to this district and operate again on an extensive scale. He has bonded the Rand group of six claims on August mountain, at the head of Salmon Glacier from L. E. Bigham and Andrew Johnson and also has brought the Meziaden group, formerly the Del Norte, from Homer Ficklin and L. E. Bigham.

The local Moose Lodge celebrated the founding of the order with a successful smoker last Friday night. Some 125 men partook of a tasty supper at which Dictator W. R. Tooth presided. The speakers included Past Dictator Noel Traversey and there was a fine program of entertainment.

Joe Jackson, locator of the first claims in the Texas Creek section, is in town for a week after having put in a strenuous season prospecting in the Clearwater and Iskut River sections. During the summer Mr. Jackson sustained some painful injuries as a result of a fall in the Stikine River district and spent some time in the Wrangell hospital. He still has to use a cane.

Sam McMurchie and Floyd Hanson saw the results of a summer's work gone when the recent flood, combined with an abnormally high tide, took away 200,000 feet of their logs from the mouth of the Georgia River.

Work on the Outland-Silver Bar property is showing gratifying results according to C. L. Hibbard, one of the heaviest owners, who has spent most of the summer in the camp and left recently on his return to Seattle. Results, he said, have amply justified the expenditure of more than $30,000 which has already been made and a continuation of the extensive development program as laid out.

A. E. Malacord of Vancouver is in Stewart for a week on business.

SPORT CHAT

A beautiful sample of a trout, caught almost in his back door by Herbie Morgan, son of Bert Morgan, manager of the Grotto Cigar Store, has attracted considerable attention. Some have called it a genuine speckled trout but authorities are not so sure of that and, as a matter of fact, officials of the Prince Rupert Fisheries Experimental Station, having got wind of the fish, have taken it to the station for identification. Its almost black body and pure white fin tips with hook nose make of it a unique specimen. The fish was caught at the week-end in Morse Creek under the Second Avenue bridge and is sixteen inches long, weighing one pound and three ounces.

There seems to be no good reason why the Prince Rupert Billiard League cannot be reorganized successfully on the basis of five teams. Starting this season with three teams, the league has been rather exclusive with its fifteen or so players, the pick of the city's talent. While the proposed reorganization may not improve the general standard of play among those participating it will, at least, give a much greater number of players the opportunity to practice their talents and, if a good division of the players is effected, the series will be of much greater interest than it would be with only three or four teams participating. It is to be hoped that the new league may be successfully launched.
