Affair Last Night Proved Novel and Caused Lots of Merriment

The I.O.D.E. party held last night in the hall on Fifth Avenue proved an outstanding event at which there was much merriment and the results were financially successful. The guests entered into the spirit of the occasion and had a wonderful time.

The hall was arranged with a group of stalls in each corner where refreshments and other things were sold, each according to the season represented. Winter was represented by the three menths: December, January and February. December, the Christmas month, was decorated in red and green; January in white and silver, and February, valentine month, in red and white. Spring and March in green, April in mauve and white, and May, pink and white. Summer had June in rose and white July n red, white and blue, August in black and white. Autumn was represented by September with its autumn tints, October in black and orange, and November with more autumn tints of rusty brown and green.

ACROPOLIS HILL GROUNDS LEAGUE

Permission was given last night by the city council to the Acropolis Hill Grounds Improvement League to hold a tag day for the purpose of raising funds to clear up the sum of $265 still outstanding on the pledge of $1,-000 made to the city by the League earlier in the year.

On behalf of the league, Ben Self appeared before the council, other members of the delegation-George B Casey and A. J. Prudhomme-being unable to attend. Mr. Self informed the council that the League ognfidently expected to have the whole balance cleared before the end of the year and, if the tag day did not suffice, some kind of an attraction would be arranged to raise the money. It had been expected that some assistance might have been obtained from the Diamond Jubilee of Confederation Celebration keeping its profits from July 1 celebration intact for the purpose of building a grandstand.

PLEASANT EVENING AT UNITED CHURCH

Hallowe'en was spent in a pleasant and interesting manner by a large group of young people at a social given last night by the Young People's Society of First United Church. Badminton and other games were played in the gymnasium while the reception was being arranged and then the guests were led into the club room where they were serenaded by ghosts, ghost stories and other gruesome detils before entering the main hall where special games, contests, etc. were engaged in and a delightful evening spent during which refreshments were served. The place was elaborately and appropriately decorated. Winners in the contests included Mrs. E. P. Jenner and Miss Betty Arney. The committee in charge consisted of George Stocks, chairman Miss Garnett, Duncan Miller, Bronson Hunt, Ross Ingram, Miss E. P. Grassie. Miss Rogers and Miss Isabel Anger.

They grinned when the waiter spoke to me in Greek, but their laughter changed to astonishment at my ready

"I wanna roasta bif san'wich, str-rromberry pie, two cups kawfee," was the clear statement I made without hesitation.—Life.
