INTEREST WAKING IN MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

Some interest is commencing to be taken in the matter of the municipal election which is now but six days' distant.

It is pretty certain that Mayor Newton will be opposed, even pitals, churches and other exemptions though to beat him would appear to be a job that would take more left the taxable property at $6,481,929. than six days' or less campaigning. If there are any candidates who This included the railway property aswould essay to oppose him, they would have done well to make an sessed at $2,500,000 on which the comearlier start. Undoubtedly many people who would like to end His Worship's "mortgage" on the mayoral chair but they have been frightened that they would be turned down. It has been a case of "the spirit is willing but the flesh is weak" which is not a very desirable state of affairs.

With five in the field, there is already enough material in the field to contest the four seats on the aldermanic board. More candidates will likely offer themselves for the voters to choose from as far as the seats below the mayor's are concerned.

Nothing is yet heard about the school board contest but the three retiring members of the Board will probably submit their papers again on Monday. There may even be a contest for the three seats on the board.

Certain campaigners in connection with the police plebiscite have been active recently and their voice will likely be more distinctly heard within a day or so. In this connection, it looks as though the champions of the city police system are waiting for the other side to say something.

Judging from the opinions that are expressed around town, opinion was that the debt of the city the chances do not look very good for the passing of the $35,000 sewer bylaw. This would provide at least for the starting of a much needed improvement but there is a rather strong view that the $35,-000 for the work would by no means see the job completed.

BRITISH AND AMERICAN NEWS SERVICE.

Sometimes Canadian papers are criticized for featuring American news and views more than they do the affairs of the Mother city owes to present his account and Country and the Empire. The criticism to a large extent may be justified but to rectify it is a task that is, so far, removed from the hands of the publishers of Canadian newspapers. In most papers—the big as well as the small—there is a good deal of space year the speaker referred to the city's to be filled by correspondence material that is usually furnished hydro-electric plant which was not able joined the inland water transport unit.
