TRACK EVENTS NEXT IN SPORT

FOOTBALL ON SHELF AND BASKET-BALL IN LIMELIGHT NOW

CHICAGO, Jan. 7 .- With football on the shelf, and basketball in the centre of the college athletics limelight, the track stars are making ready to take an increasingly large part in the sports world, both in numbers of contestants and spectators.

Besides the dual meets and conference championships in the "Big Ten" and Missouri Valley, the college stars have a chance to test their speed and strength in half a dozen different relay games in the middle and south west.

The two conference meets are closed to outside entries, but in the Drake relays at Des Moines, the premier track and field meet of the West, more than 2,500 participants are expected to compete representing nearly one hundred gained a large amount of favorable a hundred prep and high schools.

Some of the trainers have already arrived and Harry Olensky, with his team of seven wolfhound huskies, is the one most in the public eye just | now. The race does not take place till the last of the month. It is announced that amongst the entries will be one from Leonard Sappella, the noted Alaskan driver. Leo Goddard. Emile St. Goddard, Earl Bridges, Donat Beland, Red Welsh, Ross Mexley and others have expressed their intention of taking part.

Jack Delaney, taking a leaf out of Bob Fitzsimmons' book, is going after the "heavies" and it looks as if he would not be obliged to worry very much over being able to give and take in their class, and prove himself fit to take a chance at the heavyweight crown within a few months. He took part recently in a Christmas fund boxing show in Jersey City and met heavy called Bud Gorman of Wisconsin, to whom he had to give away 25 pounds. In the first round he just held his own, and in the beginning of the second he received some bruises about the nose, but by that time he had felt out his opponent and started to smash him. First a hard blow to the point of the chin downed Gorman for the count of eight. Next he hit him on the side of the jaw, and sent him down again for the count of five and although Gorman came back groggily each time, he was in such a mussed up mental and bloody bodily state that the referee as well as the spectators realized that he was a beaten man and the bout was stopped, giving Delaney the bout on a technical knockout. Delaney's victory is generally considered to have been an impressive one. and the accuracy of his aim, and the powerful driving force behind his blows,
