SAD CONDITION CHICAGO TODAY

Amazing Condition Has Been Shown of Collusion With Police it is Said

CHICAGO, Dec. 7.—The Herald and Examiner said that "amazing evidence" of collusion between Chicago police officials and politicians and the operatives of liquor and gambling resorts has been obtained by the United States government in a secret investigation during the last month.

Every police captain, said the newspaper, has been continually shadowed by federal operatives during the past few weeks. Ward and precinct committee men and their lesser lieutenants have been under surveillance.

The newspaper said it had been indicated that a number of indictments already have been prepared but were being withheld until the government's case is completed. If indictments are to be returned, the Herald and Examiner's information has it, they probably will charge conspiracy to violate the Volstead act.

Government men have learned, the newspaper said, that saloons and gambling resorts have operated only upon the payment of "protection money" which, in some precincts, went to "high ranking police officers."

DECLINES TO COMMENT

George E. O. Johnson, United States district attorney, declined to comment on the reported government investigation, except to reiterate the comment he made two days ago that the government was "naturally interested" in recent gang killings which seemed related to violation of the prohibition law.

The Herald and Examiner said that a mass of evidence has been stacked on Mr. Johnson's desk, the evidence for the most part being concerned with collection activities of ward and precinct politicians.

Among the things the federal agents have learned, the newspaper said, was that alliances have been made between some politicians and gang leaders who control whisky and beer distribution. Unless the saloon owner makes his purchases from specified sources, he is not permitted to continue operation, even though he makes his "tribute" payment, said the newspaper.

The start of the federal investigation was ascribed to E. C. Yellowley, prohibition director. The district attorney's office is understood to have taken over the investigation later with the co-operation of the prohibition department here and at Washington.

BRIDE-TO-BE IS GUEST OF HONOR AT HOME OF BRIDEGROOMS'S MOTHER

Honoring her son's fiancee, Miss Betty Somerset, Mrs. H. R. N. Clyne and her daughter, Miss Norah Clyne, entertained this afternoon at their home on Augus Avenue, says the Vancouver Sun. The color note of shell pink was brought out by the quantities of carnations and chrysanthemums in that delicate shade that were used throughout the rooms and on the tea table.

Mrs. H. M. Somerset, Mrs. E. S. Silbernagel and Mrs. A. T. Dalton presided at the urns, and Miss Dorothy Somerset and Miss Kathleen Kelly of Berkeley, Cal., cut the ices. The group of serviteurs included Mrs. H. M. Ferguson, Miss Bice Clegg, Miss Phyllis Dalton, Miss Bubbles Dalton, Miss Elizabeth Silbernagel and Miss Helen Newsome.

Miss Somerset is to marry J. B. Clyne of the law firm of William, Manson & Gonzales and will live in Prince Rupert.

APPEAL COURTS BRITAIN BUSY

Makes Drastic Reduction in the Sentences Imposed by Lower Tribunals

LONDON, Dec. 8.—There were Judges who were strongly opposed to the establishment of a Court of Criminal Appeal, one of the main objections being that it would harmfully lessen the responsibilities of juries, who, if they believed that a conviction would mean a stern sentence, would be inclined to lean too much from the start towards an acquittal.

Some remarkably drastic reductions in sentences have lately been ordered by the Court of Criminal Appeal. In one case the Lord Chief Justice commented strongly upon the remarks of the Chairman of the Middlesex Sessions, (Sir Montague Sharpe, a lawyer of high standing). "The interpretation of the Chairman's remarks," said the Lord Chief, "seems to be that a man who is sentenced at all should be sentenced to penal serviture for life, lest he commit another offence." The offender had been sentenced to five years for thieving eightpence from a church offertory box. He had many previous convictions, but the Lord Chief and Justices Avory and Salter reduced the five years sentence to one of nine months.

Sentence upon a housebreaker was reduced from five years to six months, and another sentence was reduced from twelve to three months.

The Court of Criminal Appeal is always composed of three judges. Its sittings have interfered with the holidays of their Lordships during what is known as the Long Vacation, when the ordinary courts rise for two months or more. All the same it has quashed many hundreds of convictions, and stern rebukes have often been administered to the lower criminal courts.

SPORT CHAT

From all appearances lovers of skating and hockey at Alice Arm are going to try and exist this winter without indulging in their favorite recreation. Although there has been over three weeks of freezing weather there and the only roofed rink north of Vancouver, up to the present no concerted effort has been made to flood the rink and procure ice.

Ski-ing has made tremendous strides in Canada during the past few years. This great outdoor sport has swept the country from coast to coast, enlisting armies of recruits, and is fast becoming one of the most popular of our winter pastimes. No outdoor activity repays its devotees with a more abounding measure of health and strength; none provides greater delight or a keener sense of freedom. Under a velvety mantle of snow, the bush trail, the lakes, the swamps, obstacles during a summer jaunt, become easy to traverse. Like the snowshoe the ski provides the key to the wilderness.

ANOTHER NEW WHEAT GROWN SASKATCHEWAN

PIAPOT, Sask., Dec. 8.—Mindum Durham wheat has shown itself to be the variety of grain suitable for this district of Saskatchewan. Experiments made this summer proved, according to farmers, that this grain has a greater yield than Marquis and grades higher.

One farmer sowed two bushels on eight acres of land and the yield was 200 bushels and the grade No. 1, while a field of Marquis wheat, sown beside the Durham, yielded only 17 bushels to the acre and graded No. 3.

Another farmer had a Durham yield of 31 bushels to the acre.
