HOUSEHOLD OF SIR FREDERICK PRESTON SMITH AT WINDSOR. ONT., INTERESTING ONE-TWO CHILDREN

WINDSOR, Ont., Feb. 14 .- One of the most interesting households in the Border Cities is that of Frederick Preston The latter married in Canton, China, the daughter of Wun Yu Cheung. a Chinese Judge. They were married by Sir James Jameson, British consul general for Canton. Miss Cheung was a clever young woman, having been given an extraordinarily good education both in English and Chinese. She studied for several years in a Roman Catholic academy, where she became acquainted with Occidental literature and philosophy. She did not embrace the Roman Catholic faith, however, having become a Presbyterian. Later she studied for The first prize was won by Miss Louise three years in a Chinese dental college. Hazeldine.

GIRLS IN CHARGE OF LAST NIGHT'S

The Canadian Girls in Training were in charge of a successful service which was held last night in the First United Church. There was a large congregation which adequately expressed its appreciation of the girls' fine work.

Miss Kathie Irvine, president of the group, was in the chair and the scripture lesson was read by Miss Ella Steen. There were papers by Miss Nellie Gurvich on "What C.G.I.T. means to the Individual Girl," and by Miss Phyllis Harvey on "The Achievements of C.G.I.T. in British Columbia." Miss Isabel Haddock, deaconess, spoke on "C.G.I.T. in Relation to the Home." Miss Kathie Irvine sang a solo and the girls' choir rendered choruses.
