AND LABOR COUNCIL

EDMONTON, July 9 .- Believing that ituation in Edmonton, which they expect will reach a peak next winter, the local Trades and Labor council forwarded a strong request to the provincial government asking that they commence a much more extensive road improvement

The council claims that the work would provide better roads for present residents of Alberta and attract more tourist traffic, besides taking care of unemployed. Lack of good roads is one of the chief drawbacks of the province at Sewell Inlet, Moresby Island, Queen at the present time, the council holds.
