Neglected Eyes

NEGLECT is doubtless the cause of most of the ills that afflict humanity. This is so self evident that it seems hardly necessary to tell you. If your eyes are giving trouble, have them attended to—and at once.

OF ALL absurdities in the kingdom of foolishness, surely the loss of eyesight through neglect is the most inexcusable.

DON'T lose health and efficiency through neglect. Come and see!

PARTY CLOSES CRIB SEASON

CARDS AND DANCING WERE ORDER OF EVENTS AT AFFAIR GIVEN BY LEAGUE

As a happy ending to a very successful season, the Cribbage League entertained last night with a cribbage and whist drive and dance in the Moose Hall when Mayor Newton presented to the Canadian National Operators the Dawson cup emblematic of the city cribbage championship for the season 1926-27.

There were fifteen tables of cribbage and as many more of whist after which dancing was indulged in for the balance of the evening to music discoursed by Mrs. R. P. Ponder's orchestra.

Prize winners for the evening were Mrs. W. H. Perry and Mrs. George Rudderham, Percy Cameron and Fraser Steeves in the cribbage tournament while Mrs. L. R. Parry, Mrs. Preece, H. Strand and L. R. Parry were winners in the whist drive.

On behalf of the cribbage league Fred Wernig, secretary, was presented with a travelling case in appreciation of the faithful services he had rendered the league during the past season.

The general committee in charge of the evening's program consisted of Mrs. Fred Wernig, Mrs. H. Skattebol, Mrs. George Rudderham, Mrs. G. W. Johnston and Mrs. C. J. Norrington for the ladies while the men's committee

Life in London

By Sid Webb

Summer time came into force in England during early morning of April 10 (Sunday) when all clocks were put forward one hour. This time changing stunt in England works like a charm and nearly everyone looks upon it as a boon, with the exception, perhaps, of some of the farmers and mothers with young children, the latter claiming that they cannot get the children to sleep in the long evenings. However, summer time is looked forward to in this country by eight people out of every ten and gives the shop and office workers a chance to indulge in summer sports, especially in view of the fact that the majority of workers have to travel a long distance to reach the parks and swimming pools, etc. The railway time tables and other schedules of travel conform to the new time and there is no inconvenience caused to the travelling public.

While summer time came in so smoothly the weather was not at all in keeping with the event. On Saturday, April 9, the great metropolis was evidently in the bad books of the "weather clerk" and the natives were treated to some real squally and wintry weather. While the morning was bright the skies darkened soon after midday, in fact it came over as black as the proverbial "ace of spades" and artificial light had to be resorted to under working conditions. Then the hail came down in sheets accompanied by a severe thunderstorm. The lightning was very vivid and the peals of thunder reminded an old soldier of the air raid days in war time. The rain and hail with a cold north wind raged nearly all day. These are facts about Old Country weather, and when people in Prince Rupert are apt to "kick" about their weather they should find consolation in the fact that weather exists in all parts of the world and that when it rains it's sure wet.

On April 11, while the writer was typing this, the sun was shining beautifully, and the weather men forecast good weather for Easter but it doesn't pay to believe all they say.

COMMUNITY SINGING

The overseas idea of community singing has caught on strong in England and this new "sport" is indulged in at all big gatherings, such as football games, at the Albert Hall, etc., and occasionally the London Daily Mail organizes a "singing" contest, in fact the latter newspaper was the first to start the stunt in this country. Now the London Daily Express has recently issued a Community Song Book containing such old favorite songs as "Pack Up Your Troubles," "Annie Laurie," etc., and a tremendous public demand has been made on the book. It is usual at the open-air community sing-songs for a band to lead the singing, and both the music and singing is very effective. Perhaps this idea might appeal to Mr. Wilson and his famous Boys' Band. I mean the idea of issuing a popular song sheet and the boys leading the music say, on Totem Pole Hill. It would doubtless fill in a nice evening during the summer months.

THE BUDGET

Winston Churchill, chancellor of the exchequer, brings down his budget in the House of Commons this afternoon. The budget amounts to the enormous sum of £825,000,000 (multiply the figures yourself by five and bring it to dollars) in which there is a deficit of more than £36,000,000 (multiply by five again). This means increased taxation for an already burdened British public and is most unpopular, naturally. After all governments are like human beings in business, it's results that count. Consequently the Conservative regime seems to be growing increasingly unpopular, and it has already lost one or two by-election seats to the Liberals. Winston is reported to be heavy on the luxuries to meet the deficit in including wines, tobacco, sugar, silks, etc. In face of all this, there is strong talk that the government is about to reduce the tax on whisky, which at present sells at 12s. 6d. (roughly three dollars and ten cents) a bottle. This reduction has been suggested owing to the poor British demand and consequent piling up of supplies, and it is hoped that by bringing this "lubricant" down to a decent level in price that business will be enhanced. When the British can get a glass of good top beer for 4d. (eight cents) over the bar he does not feel disposed to shell out his hard earned money for something which is not a great deal better, at least in England.

JOY KILLING

There is a lot of controversy going on in the newspapers just now about the conductors of the motor buses singing and whistling while on duty. Wherever one goes there is always some poor misguided person who wants to take the joy out of life. It is so even in London, and while the conductors are trying to brighten up the "burly-burly" of the London streets with a little well meant harmony, some people seem to want to tie their whistle up with string. Life was ever thus. The bus conductors have no security of a job with thousands of stops on their journeys and all sorts of men, women and children to contend with, to which they are supposed to show a smiling countenance, and yet, it seems, they are not going to be allowed to even whistle the "Death of Nelson" to keep their spirits bright. Judging from the number of long faces one encounters upon the streets, if there were a law passed

The Well-Managed Home

THE manager of a household is the purchasing agent for a large proportion of the family needs. In order to do a good job she must know what, when and where to buy. She must study goods and the concerns which make goods and have them to sell. She must put her home on a business basis and run it on business principles in order to make the most of the family income.

Information is the only basis for intelligent purchasing. And the right way to get the greatest amount of necessary information is to read the advertisements.

Advertisements tell you what is new and good in merchandise. They reveal improvements and inventions to make your home life easier, more comfortable and more convenient. They give you information about a thousand and one things that are useful.

Every manager of a household---every member of the household who shares the responsibility for the family's welfare---should make a habit of reading the ads.

Read the advertisements in order to buy wisely that everyone should whistle a tune before purchasing a bus ticket it would seem to be more to the point, at least in the view of the writer. The same people who worry about such trifles as this are the folks who would even "kick" at a cup-tie final.

JOHN McCORMACK IS FROTH BLOWER NOW

Membership Obligation is Blow Froth Off Beer With One Blow

NEW YORK, April 27.—John McCormack, the tenor, on his arrival from Europe recently, said he had joined a club in England known as "The Froth Blowers." The only obligation for membership, he said, was to blow the foam off beer scientifically with one complete blow.

He added that the froth blowers were anti-prohibitionists. Membership is established by buying a silver link. The money spent on links is used for charity.
