TERRACE LADIES

Large Attendance at Annual Event of Anglican Church Saturday

TERRACE, May 16. The spring sale of the W. A. to the Anglican Church. Terrace, was held Saturday afternoon in Progress Hall.

Weather conditions were not all what could be desired, rain falling steadily nearly all afternoon. A splendid crowd was in attendance, however, and the sale was a decided success.

Promptly at 3 o'clock the sale was declared open by the president, Mrs. T. J. Marsh, who, assisted by Mrs. A. W. Robinson, welcomed the visitors.

The different booths, very attractively arranged and decorated with potted plants, fernery and crepe paper festoons, were laden with plain sewing and fancy work, delicious home-made candy and appetizing home cooking. The white elephant booth, attention to which was drawn by a miniature white elephant, disposed of a goodly number of articles of a very varied nature. The committees in charge were as
